Counseling for Social Justice Courtland C. Lee, 2018-06-27 Thought leaders examine social justice counseling from a global perspective in the latest edition of this pioneering book Part 1 examines the historical and contemporary context of social justice counseling Part 2 presents ideas for promoting social justice and challenging oppression and marginalization with individual clients and communities Topics in this section include perspectives on peace violence and conflict recommendations for global initiatives in school counseling advocacy for decent work promoting gender equity fighting racism and implementing social action strategies with LGBTQ communities older people people with disabilities and undocumented immigrants Part 3 contains chapters on the role of neuroscience in advancing social justice and infusing social justice perspectives in ethics research and counselor training This third edition could not come at a better time given the current national and global political climates Lee and his colleagues raise the bar challenging counselors to move from simply understanding social injustice to engaging in actions that improve systemic inequities The magnitude of this charge cannot be ignored This text should be mandatory in every counselor education program in the United States and across the globe the time is now Counselors must take the lead by leaning in and changing the world one person at a time one community at a time and one nation at a time Colleen R Logan PhD Fielding Graduate University Courtland Lee continues to be a leader in helping to advance social justice in the counseling profession This book builds on previous editions by offering new and emerging strategies for implementing social justice with clients and communities It pushes the limits of what is possible when counselors incorporate social justice into their practice Manivong J Ratts PhD Seattle University This text provides crucial information on how counselors can engage in social justice work throughout their practice research and advocacy activities to not only become effective change agents but also transform how we see ourselves and the world Anneliese A Singh PhD University of Georgia Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org

Miseducation A. J. Angulo, 2016-04-01 A provocative collection that explores how intentional ignorance seeps into formal education Honorable Mention for the PROSE Education Theory Award of the Association of American Publishers Ignorance or the study of ignorance is having a moment Ignorance plays a powerful role in shaping public opinion channeling our politics and even directing scholarly research The first collection of essays to grapple with the historical interplay between education and ignorance Miseducation finds ignorance and its social production through na vet passivity and active agency at the center of many pivotal historical developments Ignorance allowed Americans to maintain the institution of slavery Nazis to promote ideas of race that fomented genocide in the 1930s and tobacco companies to downplay the dangers of cigarettes Today ignorance enables some to deny the fossil record and others to ignore climate science A J Angulo brings together seventeen experts from across the scholarly spectrum to explore how intentional ignorance seeps into formal education Each chapter identifies education as a critical site for advancing our still limited understanding of what exactly ignorance is where it comes from and how it is diffused maintained and regulated in society Miseducation also challenges the notion that schools are ideally unimpeachable sites of knowledge production access and equity By investigating how laws myths national aspirations and global relations have recast and at times distorted the key purposes of education this pathbreaking book sheds light on the role of ignorance in shaping ideas public opinion and policy

Conflict: Human Needs Theory John Burton, 1990-09-25 Psychology of Non-violence and Aggression V.K. Kool, 2007-11-27 Kool draws on recent research to illustrate that whilst the control of violence is a reaction to aggression nonviolence is by contrast an active behaviour The book explores a wide survey of theories and examples spanning ideas in cognition motivation and behaviour that will provide students with an engaging entry point to the subject Journal of ethnic studies, 2007

The International Negotiation Network Dayle E. Spencer, William J. Spencer, 1992 The Handbook of Interethnic Coexistence Eugene Weiner, 1998 Addresses the question of how ethnic groups and nations can coexist with one another without sacrificing their own identities and values The book offers both theoretical and practical resources for facilitating interethnic coexistence and contains an appendix with a bibliography and a list of organizations sponsoring coexistence work Co-existing Differences Mikio Oishi, 2016

The Psychology of Peacekeeping Harvey Langholtz, 1998-08-27 Langholtz examines how psychology and other social sciences can offer both theoretical explanations and practical applications in the resolution and amelioration of potentially violent international conflicts Since the end of the Cold War and bipolar ideologies the international community has been willing to intervene using approaches that are founded as much in psychology as in force and these remedies have not been confined to the violent periods of conflicts This book examines psychological interventions and issues during three phases of conflicts First the book examines measures available in advance of a threatening conflict through early intervention and an examination of ethno-political issues economic problems and potential diplomatic solutions Second psychological facets of peacekeeping are examined the selection of peacekeepers psychological ambiguities of peacekeeping and the numbing that comes with widespread suffering Finally the book examines the psychological measures available to strengthen a cease fire deal with mines and related after effects of war encourage reconciliation and hasten the return to a stable and durable peace

Resolving Identity-Based Conflict In Nations, Organizations, and Communities Jay Rothman, 1997-06-05 Conflict can either destroy or create depending on whether and how it is guided This is the simple yet profound insight that underlies Jay Rothman's innovative new framework for understanding and transforming identity based conflict in nations organizations and communities Reading a newspaper working in an organization or sitting in on a town meeting can provide vivid examples of identity conflicts in action Based in the national organizational and community groups that provide individuals with meaning safety and dignity identity conflicts are passionate and volatile because they strike at our core who we really are and what we care about most deeply Though often impervious to traditional methods of conflict management identity based conflict also provides adversaries with dynamic opportunities for finding not only common ground but higher ground than separate parties could have found on their own Grounded in his grassroots conflict resolution work in the Middle East work that earned him the honor of witnessing the historic White House handshake between Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and PLO President Yasser Arafat and brilliantly refined to address a wide range of organizational and community conflicts Rothman's ARIA model is a versatile and innovative synthesis of the best contemporary ideas in conflict management resolution and transformation Step by step Resolving Identity Based Conflict traces the ARIA journey through Antagonism Resonance Invention and Action in a variety of environments In straightforward jargon free language Rothman conveys solid theoretical insights and practical how to's that allow researchers and practitioners to Recognize the crucial differences between identity and resource based conflicts Zero in on the needs and motivations shared by even the bitterest of adversaries Create joint agendas for groups in conflict Transform intragroup and intergroup conflicts in organizations of every kind

The United Nations Sam Daws, Paul Graham Taylor, Sara Lodge, 2000 The International Library of Politics and Comparative Government is an essential reference series which compiles the most significant journal articles in comparative politics over the past 30 years It makes readily accessible to teachers researchers and students an extensive range of essays which together provide an indispensable basis for understanding both the established conceptual terrain and the new ground being broken in the rapidly changing field of comparative political analysis These two volumes include articles which examine the system the structure the function and the future of the United Nations Workbook for Interest-based Problem Solving in Local Government Nicholas P. Lovrich,1998 Learning Lessons from Waco Jayne Seminare Docherty,2001 This intensive case study derives lessons for negotiation theory research and practice from the Waco disaster The siege at Waco simply refuses to disappear Recently uncovered evidence an ongoing civil suit and the Danforth investigation fuel public interest and controversy Heated debates about what really happened in Waco are a recurring public drama Yet little or no attention has been given to the work of the negotiator who talked with the Branch Davidians This important book utilizes largely unexplored sources of data to explain why fifty one days of negotiations by federal officials failed to get Branch Davidians to exit the compound as desired Learning Lessons from Waco applies a theory of worldview conflict to the more than 12 000 pages of negotiation transcripts from Waco Through perceptive analysis of the situation Jayne Seminare Docherty offers a fresh perspective on the activities of law enforcement agents She shows how the Waco conflict resulted from a collision of two distinct worldviews the FBI s and the Davidians and their divergent notions of reality By exploring the failures of the negotiations she also urges a better understanding of encounte From Confrontation to Cooperation Jay Rothman,1992-08-05 This book explores the roots of transformations in world politics and suggests how the art and science of conflict resolution may be used to guide these changes in constructive and peaceful ways The author proposes that a new emphasis or more precisely a corrective to the power politics approach should prevail in the study and practice of international relations and diplomacy Using the example of the Israeli Palestinian conflict the author presents a methodology for intergroup and international conflict management analysis training policy making and intervention Comparative cases are also included to help readers build upon the approaches suggested for their own educational and peacemaking activities

International Social Science Journal ,1991 Criminology as Peacemaking Harold E. Pepinsky,Richard Quinney,1991 Criminology has traditionally been a military science a science of war The criminal element is the enemy Repression and restraint are the primary tools of criminal justice and criminologists study how to make those tools effective in the war on crime We are beginning to realize that this is a war against ourselves and one that we are losing Our inability to make peace with crime and criminals is reflected in the paucity of our daily personal relations where we live by domination and discipline where forgiveness and mercy are seen as naive surrender to victimization The essays in this volume propose peacemaking as an effective alternative to the war on crime They range from studies of the intellectual roots of the peacemaking tradition to concrete examples of peacemaking in the community with special attention to feminist peacemaking traditions and women s experience Nigerian Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences ,2007 Communication in Peace, Conflict in Communication Tuğrul İlter,2008 Peace and Conflict are commonly understood as polar opposites In a polarised opposition there is no place for conflict in peace and peace the privileged term of the binary opposition needs to be pure and homogeneous cleansed of any unlicensed differences and contradictions Yet a radically plural and demo cratic politic must harbour conflicting and antagonistic views of things opposition is internal to it and its view of freedom says that freedom is always the freedom of those who think differently In contrast the ideal of a homogeneous self same indivisibly unified society is totalitarian and repressive of the very differences that make a society any society possible The organizers of the 2nd International Conference on Communication and Media Studies at Eastern Mediterranean University 24 May 2007 thought that a deconstructive and feminist framework that destabilises the entrenched certain ties of polar oppositions and an ethical response to the irreducible otherness of the other as well as to one's own alterity would be very appropriate and relevant in our times for rethinking these issues and relied on that framework in formulating the theme of the conference as Communication in Peace Conflict in Communication to emphasise the interrelationship of the two parts separated by the slash as well as the formulation of the subtopics that were listed in the call for papers This volume includes work from around the world that responded to that call

Multi-track Diplomacy Louise Diamond, John W. McDonald, 1996 Unique in its systemic approach to peacemaking and conflict resolution Multi Track Diplomacy identifies the players official and non state actors and activities that contribute to the peacemaking and peacebuilding process Diamond and McDonald show you how all nine tracks are interlinked and provide you with extensive resources for each track along with new ideas and fresh perspectives that will make you more effective in your work
