academicians students and researchers in the fields of knowledge management administrative sciences and management leadership development education and organization development sub branches or specialty practices Critical-Care Nurses' Perceived Leadership Practices, Organizational Commitment, and Job Satisfaction Ngozi I. Moneke,2016-12-28 My writing of this book has evolved over the past thirty six years of professional nursing practice These were my first efforts as an author which were published in 2013 Promoting a Culture of Safety Preventing Central Line Infections in Weill Cornell Medical Center which used a performance improvement process to lower the rate at which critically ill patients in cardiac care developed central line infections and Factors Influencing Critical Nurses Perception of their Overall Job Satisfaction An Empirical Study which used a correctional approach and was statistically analyzed to determine the perception of critical care nurses of their manager s leadership style and its effect on their job satisfaction Having been on the receiving end of leadership behaviors gave me a firsthand opportunity to observe these diverse nurse leaders at both extremes of the spectrumfrom laissez faire leadership style to dictatorial leadership style and everything in between Each encounter has enriched my life immeasurably My personal and professional experiences as well as the knowledge I gained from completing my dissertation all compelled me to write this bookto share with novice managers and those aspiring for a leadership role an awareness and provide them with some valuable information needed as they forge their career paths into a leadership role knowing that one of the keys to effective leadership is the ability to stay intellectually curious and committed to learning with the understanding that new knowledge can come from variety of sources and to make it a point of duty to be always on a lookout for new knowledge Culture and Environment ,2019-07-01 The inspiration for this book arose out of a large international conference the ninth World Environmental Education Congress WEEC organized under the theme of Culture Environment Similarly the theme for this book focuses on the Culture Environment nexus The book is divided into two parts Part 1 consists of a series of research studies from an eclectic selection of researchers from all corners of the globe Part 2 consists of a series of case studies of practice selected from a wide diversity of K Postsecondary educators The intent behind these selections is to augment and highlight the diversity of both cultural method and cultural voice in our descriptions of environmental education practice The chapters focus on a multi disciplinary view of Environmental Education with a developing view that Culture and Environment may be inseparable and arise from and within each other Cultural change is also a necessary condition and a requirement to rebuild and reinvent our relationship with nature and to live more sustainably The chapters address the spirit of supporting our praxis and are therefore directed towards both an educator and researcher audience Each chapter describes original research or curriculum development work Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani,Joseph Ola,Isaiah Ola Abolarin,Benjamin Isola Akano,Justice A. Arthur,Victoria Oyenike Ayano,Paul Ayokunle,Kwaku Boamah,Akarama Dan Jr,Edmore Dube,Eric Manu,Françoise Niyonsaba,Godfred Nsiah,Moses Iliya Ogidis,Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi,Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community

The Power of Perception Shawn Andrews,2017-12-18 The Power of Perception Leadership Emotional Intelligence and the Gender Divide serves as a practical guide to educate women men and organizations on the barriers that keep women from fully contributing in the workplace These include differences in leadership style and emotional intelligence gender bias and stereotypes breadwinner and caregiver responsibilities and differences in gender culture which show up every day at work and home The Power of Perception also explores significant changes in global demographic trends and how our youngest generations are impacting the workplace The Power of Perception clearly illustrates the reasons that we don t see more women leading our global businesses It has nothing to do with women s skills and competencies and everything to do with perceptions of women as leaders as workers as mothers and as wives These perceptions have a significant impact on promotion for many women Perception is reality and it s powerful

The Power of Perception provides personal stories of women's journeys, real world examples and is based on the author's own research as well as that of many others. Every chapter includes practical, easy-to-apply strategies, summary points and reflection questions to empower women, men and organizations to fully leverage talent and diversity.
