Clinical Pharmacy and Therapeutics

Roger Walker (Ph. D.), Clive Edwards (Ph. D.), 1999 Pharmacy students and practitioners now have increased responsibilities in the areas of prescribing and treatment. Modern therapeutics requires an understanding of the disease process, clinical pharmacology and the supporting evidence from scientifically designed clinical trials. The process of selecting optimal drug regimens is a team effort and depends upon the skills of pharmacists working with physicians, nurses and other health care professionals. This multi-author text written by pharmacists and physicians is suitable for those who work in both primary and secondary care. It provides a complete and detailed account of all major aspects of therapeutics and rational drug use in a readable and attractive style.

The Pharmaceutical Era, 1916      Pharmacology and Medicines Management for Nurses George Downie (MSc.), Jean Mackenzie (RGN.), Arthur Williams (MPS.), Caroline Hind, 2008. The fourth edition of this popular textbook has been updated across all sections. Changes in the control of medicines and their management are having a significant effect on both hospital and community nursing practice. Major developments in clinical practice impact on all sectors of healthcare. These changes have been incorporated in the sections which link the control and management of medicines with clinical pharmacology and practical therapeutics. New to this edition: Improved layout, illustrations, design and use of colour. Revised chapter structure. Key learning objectives. Enhanced chapters on palliative care and nurse prescribing. Intensive care. Self-assessment exercises and answers. This text will be invaluable to pre-registration students at degree and diploma level as well as registered nurses practising allied health professionals and nurses returning to practice after a career break. This is the only British textbook that combines medicines management and clinical use of drugs in one volume. In placing an emphasis on the principles of drug action, it provides a thorough foundation upon which nurses can build their clinical experience to achieve professional competence.
