New Zealand's Geopolitics and the US-China Competition Reuben Steff, 2025-01-31 This book advances the establishment of a contemporary New Zealand geopolitical tradition. It details and examines New Zealand's geopolitical reality in an increasingly fractured global security dis-order defined by interdependent strategic competition and emerging multipolarity. A centrepiece is the multidimensional US-China Great Power Competition that has the makings of a Second Cold War. This has immense implications for New Zealand's greater region, the Indo-Pacific and its immediate area, the South Pacific. The latter is of existential importance to New Zealand becoming an active area of strategic competition as China projects its influence southwards and New Zealand, Australia and the United States respond. In this context, New Zealand's location is increasingly geopolitically relevant and the idea it occupies a benign security environment has now been cast into the dustbin of history. The decisions it makes presently will determine the country's prosperity and geostrategic security for decades. Geopolitical theory along with a detailed empirical account of strategic competition in the Indo-Pacific and South Pacific offers a clear exposition of the implications of US-China competition for New Zealand. This directs us to the nation's material characteristics and imperatives that flow from it. The book also appraises the country's strategic options and indicates how and why Wellington's approach has shifted over time from hedging between the US and China to increasingly balancing against Beijing's efforts to alter the global and regional status quo. Through analysis and provocation, this book marks a major new contribution that will interest policymakers, academics, students and everyday citizens. Introduction to Cyber Politics and Policy Mary Manjikian, 2019-12-20 Introduction to Cyber Politics and Policy is a comprehensive introductory textbook for cyber politics and security courses and the perfect addition to any International Relations or Intelligence course. Written by Mary Manjikian, an expert in the field and an instructor who has taught the course for ten years, it assumes no prior knowledge of technical concepts, legal concepts, military concepts or international relations theory. Instead, she aims to bridge the gaps between the intricacies of technology and the theories of political science. The book emphasizes the importance of collaboration and understanding between the two fields. Students from both technology and political science backgrounds need to understand the implications of technology decisions and the policy questions that arise from them in order to make a meaningful contribution to ever-changing fields. Contemporary Japanese Politics and Policy Analysis Daisuke Akimoto, 2025-11-19 This book examines Japan's defense technology, unresolved territorial disputes with neighboring countries, and its trade policy. The author analyzes Japan's cutting-edge defense technologies, including space, cyberspace, and electromagnetic domains, cross-domain operations, and artificial intelligence (AI). It traces the history and future trajectories of Japan's territorial disputes with Russia, South Korea, and China, and with political actors who have shaped Japan's foreign policies toward the Northern Islands, Kurile Islands, the Takeshima/Dokdo Islands, and the Senkaku/Diaoyu Islands. It also studies Japan's policy toward free trade frameworks, especially the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP).

Agreement also known as the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans Pacific Partnership CPTPP investigates policy implications of political actors for decision making processes in the government uses case studies to substantiate the applicability of the policy analysis method in the study of contemporary Japanese politics This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in Japanese politics Japanese studies Asian studies and international relations Globalization, Governmentality and Global Politics Ronnie Lipschutz, James K. superpowers to argue that the combined effects of the narrowing power gap between China and the United States and the widening power gap between China and any third ranking power portend a new bipolar system that will differ in crucial ways from that of the last century Tunsj expands Kenneth N Waltz s structural realist theory to examine the new bipolarity within the context of geopolitics which he calls geostructural realism He considers how a new bipolar system will affect balancing and stability in U S China relations predicting that the new bipolarity will not be as prone to arms races as the previous era s that the risk of limited war between the two superpowers is likely to be higher in the coming bipolarity especially since the two powers are primarily rivals at sea rather than on land and that the superpowers are likely to be preoccupied with rivalry and conflict in East Asia instead of globally Tunsj presents a major challenge to how international relations understands superpowers in the twenty first century
