Summary of Al Ries & Laura Ries's The 22 Immutable Laws of Branding Everest Media,2022-05-07T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The power of a brand is inversely proportional to its scope When you put your brand name on everything that name loses its power The emphasis in most companies is on the short term but line extension megabrands and variable pricing are being used to milk brands rather than build them 2 The masterbrand superbrand and megabrand concepts are often used to justify line extension But people don t think this way They try to assign one brand name to each product and they are not consistent in how they assign such names They tend to use the name that best captures the essence of the product 3 Every small town in America has a coffee shop In larger cities and towns you can find delis on every block What can you find to eat in a deli Everything Soups salads hot and cold sandwiches three types of roast beef four types of ham five types of cheese 4 Good things happen when you contract your brand rather than expand it When you narrow your focus you become more powerful Rich people buy expensive houses and cars but that doesn t make them rich Instead they buy into the lifestyle

SUMMARY of the 22 IMMUTABLE LAWS of BRANDING by Al Ries and Laura Ries Summary Notes,2021-11-18 The writers explore the rules of branding that they have discovered to be true across a wide range of product and service offerings in this book Continuing a subject championed by Ries in prior works for example The 22 Immutable Laws of Marketing and Focus they assert that a fundamental difficulty for organizations is the tendency to expand a successful brand into other often only peripherally related sectors Harley Davidson wine coolers and Heinz all purpose cleaning vinegar are two real world examples discussed in the book Such brand extensions serve to confuse the consumer and undermine the primary brand s single message power In this book you have a worthy tutor The combo of father and daughter has done justice to define what the ideal branding looks like What we have done is to break down the book into smaller easy to read points I hope you enjoy reading this summary and gain valuable lessons

The Origin of Brands Al Ries,Laura Ries,2009-03-17 What Charles Darwin did for biology Al and Laura Ries do for branding In their exciting new book The Origin of Brands the Rieses take Darwin s revolutionary idea of evolution and apply it to the branding process What results is a new and strikingly effective strategy for creating innovative products building a successful brand and in turn achieving business success Here the Rieses explain how changing conditions in the marketplace create endless opportunities to build new brands and accumulate riches But these opportunities cannot be found where most people and most companies look That is in the convergence of existing categories like television and the computer the cellphone and the Internet Instead opportunity lies in the opposite direction in divergence By following Darwin s brilliant deduction that new species arise from divergence of an existing species the Rieses outline an effective strategy for creating and taking to market an effective brand In The Origin of Brands you will learn how to Divide and conquer Exploit divergence Use the theories of survival of the fittest and survival of the second best Harness the power of pruning Using insightful studies of failed convergence products and engaging success stories of products that have achieved worldwide success through divergence the Rieses have written the definitive book on branding The Origin of Brands will show you in depth how to build a great brand and will lead you to success in the high stakes world of branding

War in the Boardroom Al Ries,Laura Ries,2009-10-06 Renowned business gurus Al and Laura Ries give a blow by blow account of the battle between management and marketing and argue that the solution lies not in what we think but in how we think There s a reason why the marketing programs of the auto industry the airline industry and many other industries are not only ineffective but bogged down by chaos and confusion Management minds are not on the same wavelength as marketing minds What makes a good chief executive A person who is highly verbal logical and analytical Typical characteristics of a left brainer What makes a good marketing executive A person who is highly visual intuitive and holistic Typical characteristics of a right brainer These different mind sets often result in conflicting approaches to branding and the Ries thought provoking observations culled from years on the front lines support this conclusion including Management deals in reality Marketing deals in perception Management demands better products Marketing demands different products Management deals in verbal abstractions Marketing deals in visual hammers Using some of the world s most famous brands and products to illustrate their argument the authors convincingly show why some brands succeed Nokia Nintendo and Red Bull while others decline Saturn Sony and Motorola In doing so they sound a clarion call to survive in today s media saturated society managers must understand how to think like marketers and vice versa Featuring the engaging no holds barred writing that readers have come to expect from Al and Laura Ries War in the Boardroom offers a fresh look at a perennial problem and provides a game plan for companies that want to break through the deadlock and start reaping the rewards Cuttings Joanne Jakovich,2006 Shifting economies have left the world's post industrial cities with isolated zones of abandonment iconic yet dormant sites that are both physically and culturally vacant These sites are typically dislocated contaminated and often construed as a danger to be made safe or an economic burden to be made profitable They exist within the urban fabric though through disuse or disconnection they exist distinct from that fabric They are Urban Islands The research articles and design projects in this book consider how postindustrial sites may be used as templates for new ways of energising cities with cultural activity The Urban Islands Project on Cockatoo Island is a pointer to the possibilities
