Counselling Case Note

Case Number: 2150A-OB-ES

Client ID: 1234567

Prepared By: Olivia Bennett, Social Worker, Eco Solutions Inc.

Date: September 8, 2050

Case Summary

In this counselling session, the client's personal challenges have been effectively addressed and explored. We've engaged in discussions revolving around their coping strategies, and collaboratively worked on a plan for enhanced support and continuous improvement.

Presenting Challenges

The client reported struggles with stress management due to persistent work-related pressures. They also expressed feelings of social isolation, difficulties maintaining relationships, and recurrent mood swings. These factors contribute to an overall experience of emotional and psychological distress.

The SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy Colin Feltham, Ian Horton, 2006 This all inclusive comprehensive book may on first glance appear to have little that is relevant to emergency nurses On closer scrutiny it covers many of the emotional problems and crises you will encounter in the emergency department It is a useful resource and reference book and will be valued by students and practitioners of emergency nursing Accident and Emergency Nursing Praise for the First Edition An amazingly comprehensive well written balanced and pluralistic handbook that manages to present the rainbow field of psychotherapy and counselling in an accessible and reliable way This state of the art volume will become absolutely indispensable for anyone involved in this work whether in training or qualified Andrew Samuels Professor of Analytical Psychology University of Essex This remarkable book is more than an elegant presentation of contemporary counselling and psychotherapeutic theory It is packed full of practical skills and hints all written by highly experienced practitioners and presented in an accessible and jargon free format No idea is left unturned This is a practical handbook in every sense of the word and essential reading for trainees and practitioners alike Professor Robert Bor Consultant Clinical Psychologist Royal Free Hospital London Well organized fully inclusive and skilfully edited it is going to be impossible not to buy this handbook Basically it has something on everything which people might ask about the counselling and psychotherapy profession Dave Mearns Professor of Counselling University of Strathclyde This is an immensely useful source book for therapists to keep near at hand in order to update knowledge and to satisfy curiosity about new ways of working. It will also be extremely helpful for trainees as they strive to gain an overarching perspective in a rapidly proliferating field. Professor Helen Cowie, School of Psychology and Counselling, University of Surrey, Roehampton. The SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy, Second Edition is the most comprehensive text of its kind and an essential resource for trainees and practitioners alike. Comprising succinct and easy-to-access contributions, the Handbook describes not only the traditional skills and theoretical models but also the most common client concerns brought to therapy and the particular skills required for different practice settings and client groups. Written and edited by those at the very forefront of counselling and psychotherapy, the Handbook has been substantially updated for this the Second Edition and includes new material on evidence-based practice, psychopharmacology, counselling by email, psychodrama, solution-focused therapy, quality evaluation, and attachment theory. For trainees, the SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy, Second Edition provides the ideal companion to each stage of their studies, while for practitioners, the Handbook is an indispensable source of professional reference.

Counselling Skills Meena Hariharan, Usha Chivukula, Meera Padhy, 2024-03-13. The book professionalises counselling through the scientific application of appropriate knowledge and skills at various stages of the counselling process. With the aim of equipping readers with fundamental and advanced counselling skills, this book examines a range of key skills from various theories and models of counselling to enable students and professionals to understand the underlying techniques which need to be applied from the time the client approaches the counsellor until the conclusion of the counselling process. Sheds light on the complex psychological state of clients to discuss training for a holistic assessment in terms of emotions, cognition, motivation, and behaviour. Presents extensive materials that train the students in skills to provide emotional relief to the client to help the client change from self-defeating negative thoughts to promising positive thinking, enhancing motivation and self-confidence to initiate action. Integrates discussions on case studies, live as well as hypothetical examples, traditional and contemporary theories on counselling with the art of communication. An invaluable guidebook on developing counselling skills, this volume will be of immense interest to students, researchers, teachers, professionals, and practitioners of psychology, behavioural sciences, mental health, counselling, and education.

Designing and Managing Programs Peter M. Kettner, Robert M. Moroney, Lawrence L. Martin, 2016-01-19. The Fifth Edition of the classic Designing and Managing Programs for human services helps readers grasp the meaning and significance of measuring performance and evaluating outcomes. The authors, all leaders in the field, incorporate the principles of effectiveness-based planning as they address the steps of designing, implementing, and evaluating a human services program at the local agency level. Meaningful examples at every stage of the process, from problem analysis and needs assessment to evaluating effectiveness and calculating costs, enhance reader understanding of how concepts are implemented in the real world.
