Chaka By Thomas Mofolo:

Chaka Thomas Mofolo, 2013-05-21 Chaka is a genuine masterpiece that represents one of the earliest major contributions of black Africa to the corpus of modern world literature Mofolos fictionalized life story account of Chaka Shaka translated from Sesotho by D P Kunene begins with the future Zulu kings birth followed by the unwarranted taunts and abuse he receives during childhood and adolescence The author manipulates events leading to Chakas status of great Zulu warrior conqueror and king to emphasize classic tragedys psychological themes of ambition and power cruelty and ultimate ruin Mofolos clever nods to the supernatural add symbolic value Kunenes fine translation renders the dramatic and tragic tensions in Mofolos tale palpable as the richness of the authors own culture is revealed A substantial introduction by the translator provides valuable context for modern readers Chaka. An historical romance. By Thomas Mofolo ... Translated ... by F. H. Dutton International African Institute, Frederick Hugh DUTTON, Thomas MOFOLO, 1931 Chaka Thomas Mofolo, 2017 Chaka Thomas Mofolo, 1967 The most famous novel by the writer Thomas Mofolo of Lesotho Written in Sotho it is a mythic retelling of the story of the rise and fall of the Zulu emperor king Shaka Some Interpretative Approaches to Thomas Mofolo's "Chaka." Harold Scheub, 1970 The Novel, Volume 1 Franco Moretti, 2006 Publisher Description Interfaces Between the Oral and the Written Flora Veit-Wild, Alain Ricard, 2005 In the African context there exists the myth that orality means tradition Written and oral verbal art are often regarded as dichotomies one excluding the other While orature is confused with tradition literature is ascribed to modernity Furthermore local languages are ignored and literature is equated with writing in foreign languages The contributions in this volume take issue with such preconceptions and explore the multiple ways in which literary and oral forms interrelate and subvert each other giving birth to new forms of artistic expression They emphasize the local agency of the African poet and writer which resists the global commodification of literature through the international bestseller lists of the cultural industry The first section traces the movement from oral to written texts which in many cases coincides with a switch from African to European languages But as the essays in the section on New Literary Languages make clear in other cases a true philological work is accomplished in the African language to create a new written and literary medium Through the mixing of languages in the cities such as the Sheng spoken in Kenya or the bilinguality of a writer such as Cheik Aliou Ndao Senegal new idioms for literary expressions evolve The use of new media technology or music stimulate the emergence of new genres such as Taarab in East Africa radio poetry in Yoruba and Hausa or Rap in the Senegal as is shown in the section on Forms of New Orality It is a great achievement of this second volume of Versions and Subversions in African Literatures that it assembles contributions by scholars from the anglophone and the francophone world and that it covers literary production in a broad spectrum of languages English French Hausa Sheng Sotho Spanish Swahili Wolof and Yoruba Some of the authors and cultural practitioners treated in detail are Mobolaj Adenubi Birago Diop Boubacar Boris Diop David Maillu Thomas Mofolo Cheik

Aliou Ndao Donato Ndongo Bidyogo Hubert Ogunde Shaaban Robert Wole Soyinka Ibrahim YaroYahaya and S nouvo Agbota Zinsou Environmental Entanglements Kirk B. Sides,2025-10-22 Environmental Entanglements African Literature s Ecological Imaginary traces a long history of ecological thought in African literature Reading African literatures as environmental literatures Environmental Entanglements offers an interventional step back beyond the mid twentieth century moment of political independence Thinking about entanglement to represent relations ecologically the book explores a form which it argues is an ecological imaginary animating many African literary and cultural repertoires This ecological form gives story to experiences of transversal of colonial and apartheid boundaries the movement of peoples and the cultural and social relations enacted upon land Focusing on literary and filmic texts from the writers such as Thomas Mofolo and Sol Plaatje in the early twentieth century to contemporary science and speculative fiction producers like Nnedi Okorafor and Wanuri Kahiu Environmental Entanglements argues that cultural archives from the African continent display a history of ecological awareness that predates the moment of mid twentieth century decolonization The book is premised on the idea that imagining ecologically as a form of representing relations is not a belated preoccupation in African literatures but rather these early ecological imaginaries present an opportunity to delink notions such as environmentalism ecology and ecocriticism from postcoloniality Reading ecology as an animating organizing trope in African literatures from at least the start of the twentieth century the book offers a genealogy of the present in which the increasingly popular forms of ecologically oriented African futurism and speculative fiction are part of a history of thinking the future through ecological form in African literatures

Colonial Discourse and the Jesus-fiction of King Chaka Daniel M. Mengara,2024-09-05 Although Chaka is considered an African literary masterpiece Thomas Mofolo has paradoxically been dismissed by critics as an author naively extolling the virtues of the white man s civilizing mission in Africa Daniel M Mengara s Colonial Discourse and the Jesus fiction of King Chaka How Thomas Mofolo s Chaka Turned the Zulu Monarch into a Messiah offers a rereading of Chaka to show that Mofolo in fact astutely deconstructs and then reconstructs Zulu king Chaka into a messianic figure whose life trajectory and destiny blasphemously mirror those of Jesus Christ This volume avoids the pitfalls of the traditional mission interpretations of Chaka and provides an interpretative inflection that paints a more nuanced and balanced picture and understanding of Thomas Molofo s fictional account of the mythologized historical figure Mengara delves into the circumstances and controversies surrounding the publication of the novel and shows how Molofo Jesus fied King Chaka in a sly yet sacrilegious ploy to subvert the colonial discourse and missionary ethos of his time This book stands as a reassessment of Thomas Mofolo s often ignored nationalism and calls for a rediscovery of Mofolo s work in ways that resituate him within the history of the African novel as the undisputed pioneer of engaged African literature
