Changing Schools Robert Peal,2015      Changing Schools: Perspectives on Five Years of Education Reform

Robert Peal,2015-06-01 Changing Schools is a collection of essays by teachers researchers and administrators who have been on the front line of the revolutionary changes taking place in state education over the last five years Their chapters cover topics such as assessment academy chains use of educational research free schools and social media and will be required reading for anyone wanting to understand England s rapidly changing educational landscape Contributors include Andrew Old prominent teacher blogger Tom Bennett founder of ResearchEd Jonathan Simons head of education at the think tank Policy Exchange Katherine Birbalsingh Head of Michaela Community School James O Shaughnessy Managing Director of Floreat Education and former Policy Director for David Cameron Daisy Cristodoulou head of research at ARK Schools Doug Lemov Managing Director of Uncommon Schools and author of Teach Like a Champion      Education Reform in Societies in Transition Jaya Earnest,David F. Treagust,2006 Framed against the background of educational change this book proposes to examine the relationship between curriculum change teacher professional development policy reform and the processes of educational change The main aims of the book are to 1 focus on educational changes and reconstruction in transitional societies that have undergone political economic and social change in the past two decades 2 provide a forum for the dissemination of research on education reconstruction and reform in transitional societies 3 disseminate ideas that enhance both the practical and theoretical aspects of educational changes in these societies 4 further knowledge and understanding of emerging trends and issues in education in these societies 5 reflect the realities of educational scenarios in each transitional society The book presents an in depth exploration of educational reconstruction in 15 transitional societies In each chapter the authors have provided an overview of educational processes in the country a distillation of education change or reform and or reconstruction in each transitional society Collectively the chapters in the book have attempted to contribute to a better understanding of the educational system in respective countries by identifying the challenges and obstacles the policy implications the teacher professional development needs and curriculum reform efforts      Chinese Thoughts on Education: A Historical Perspective, Volume 2 Yongxin Zhu,2026-01-16 This book is structured in two major parts the Modern Period and the Contemporary Period The former 1840 1949 explores the interaction and integration of Chinese and Western educational ideas with chapters dedicated to key trends The latter 1949 2010 traces the evolution of educational thought through distinct historical stages The overarching theme is China s educational modernization as a contested adaptive process shaped by efforts to reconcile traditional values with global ideas address national crises and meet the needs of diverse populations In the modern era it focuses on how educators sought to save the nation through education debating whether reform or revolution was the path forward In the contemporary era it explores how education served socialist nation building navigated political upheavals and evolved to support economic development and global integration This volume is an indispensable resource for anyone seeking to understand China's educational past and its implications for global education discourse It is more than a history of Chinese education it is a study of how a nation's intellectual and educational journey reflects its quest for prosperity equity and cultural continuity It invites readers to rethink assumptions about modern education and appreciate the complexity of educational reform in a rapidly changing society

Resources in Education ,1993      Critical Perspectives on Teachers and Teaching Jessica Holloway,2024-02-08 This book draws attention to the new ways the field of education is problematising the emerging and evolving conditions that shape the work lives and identities of teachers It offers geographically diverse accounts of the teacher and teaching demonstrating what it means to do critical research well Teachers and their practice have been and continue to be important sites of critical research This book offers varied perspectives from diverse geographies to examine how teacher subjectivities are shaped by conditions of possibility Collectively they show how critiquing conditions rather than the teachers themselves provide a means for problematising the teacher while also advocating the well being of teachers as humans Contributions offer compelling examples of how critical scholars can emphasise teaching as a political and value laden exercise and therefore treat the teacher subject as also being constituted through political and value laden discourses Critical Perspectives on Teachers and Teaching offers a provocation to inspire new questions moving forward That is critical researchers have an obligation to challenge taken for granted assumptions not only by looking outwards at the policymakers edu businesses and intergovernmental agencies e g OECD but also by looking inwards and challenging their assumptions about power discourse and subjectivity This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies in Education

Educational Reform Jordan T. Ville,2001 This book brings together the literature in a field which may define the 21st century Can economic and technological progress continue with educational systems which seem to answer to no one but themselves and which output graduates who can barely read and write and who have only the faintest clue how to use a map This bibliography provides access via Title Author and Subject Indexes Contents Educational Accountability Educational Change Educational Equalisation Educational Leadership Educational Planning Educational Indicators      Asia's High Performing Education Systems Colin Marsh,John Chi-Kin Lee,2014-07-17 Education officials specialist leaders and teachers have all been involved in different ways to bring about school reform in Hong Kong This book is a very current and relevant analysis of this reform highlighting the way in which agencies have cooperated in bringing about change over the last several decades Through a process of wide ranging decision making collaboration and consensus among key bodies and agencies of change some important developments have occurred The reforms collectively have had and are continuing to have a major impact upon schooling in Hong Kong This volume represents a range of authors and specialists involved in a number of different reforms covering themes such as historical policy contexts new curriculum approaches changing pedagogies school leadership implementation and change and assessment and evaluation This is a very topical book which
