Chapter 21 Section 1 Taking On Segregation Answer Key:

Marriage Migration and Integration Katharine Charsley, Marta Bolognani, Evelyn Ersanilli, Sarah Spencer, 2020-04-24
This book provides the first sustained empirical evidence on the relationships between marriage migration and processes of integration focusing on two of the largest British ethnic minority groups involved in these kinds of transnational marriages Pakistani Muslims and Indian Sikhs In Britain and across Europe concern has been increasingly expressed over the implications of marriage related migration for integration Children and grandchildren of former immigrants marrying partners from their ancestral homelands is often presented as problematic in forming a first generation in every generation and inhibiting processes of individual and group integration impeding socio economic participation and cultural change As a result immigration restrictions have been justified on the grounds of promoting integration despite limited evidence Marriage Migration and Integration provides much needed new grounding for both academic and policy debates This book draws on both quantitative and qualitative data to compare transnational homeland marriages with intra ethnic marriages within the UK Using a distinctive holistic model of integration the authors examine processes in multiple interacting domains such as employment education social networks extended family living gender relations and belonging It will be of use to students and scholars across sociology social anthropology and social policy with a focus on migration integration family studies gender and ethnic studies as well as policy makers and service providers in the UK and across Europe The New York Times Index, 1974

Making Schools Better for Disadvantaged Students Stephen Gorard, Beng Huat See, Nadia Siddiqui, 2022-11-25 2023 BERA Educational Research Book of the Year Around the world governments charities and other bodies are concerned with improving education especially for the lowest attaining and most disadvantaged students Making Schools Better for Disadvantaged Students presents detailed research into how poverty affects student segregation and underachievement in schools It contains the first ever large scale evaluation of how funding can best be used to lower the poverty attainment gap for disadvantaged students Drawing on a wealth of empirical research from England India and Pakistan as well as worldwide reviews of relevant studies the book presents high quality evidence on the impact of funding policy initiatives such as the Pupil Premium funding in England and the many variations of similar schemes worldwide It analyses education measures which have been put in place and discusses ways in which these can be used efficiently and fairly to allocate funding to students who are persistently at risk of underachievement The book is unique in synthesising many forms of evidence from around the world and finding a definition of educational disadvantage that can be used fairly across different contexts Offering significant implications for ways to improve educational outcomes for disadvantaged students the book will be essential reading for students of education policy sociology of education and educational practices and all researchers school leaders and policy makers working in this area Federal Register, 2001-02 English
