Chinese Grammar 4 F Cengage Learning Asia:

A Grammar of Modern Baba Malay Nala H. Lee, 2022-02-07 This book documents modern Baba Malay a critically endangered Austronesian based contact language with a Sinitic substrate Formed via intermarriage between Hokkien speaking male traders and indigenous women in the Malay Peninsula the language has less than 1 000 speakers in Singapore and less than 1 000 speakers in Malacca Malaysia This volume fills a gap for reference grammars of contact languages in general Reference grammars written on contact languages are rare and much rarer is a reference grammar written about a critically endangered Austronesian based contact language The reference grammar which aims to be useful to linguists and general readers interested in Baba Malay describes the language s sociohistorical background its circumstances of endangerment and provides information regarding the phonology parts of speech and syntax of Baba Malay as spoken in Singapore A chapter that differentiates this variety from that spoken in Malacca is also included The grammar demonstrates that the nature of Baba Malay is highly systematic and not altogether simple providing structural information for those who are interested in the typology of contact languages Cultural Linguistics and ELT Curriculum Mino Alemi, Zia Tajeddin, 2025-10-10 This book accumulates analyses and evaluation evidence about the cultural conceptualizations in English language teaching ELT textbooks framed by cultural linguistics It considers conceptualizations of cultural constructs such as family gender beauty and the home within ELT curricula Despite the strength of cultural linguistics as a theoretical and analytical movement few volumes in applied linguistics have sought to provide data based evidence about the application of cultural linguistics to language teaching curricula The volume addresses recent issues in cultural linguistics and presents the associated implications for curriculum planning materials development and textbook evaluation The aim of the volume is to enhance understanding of ELT curricula through a cultural linguistics lens Relevant to cultural theorists education experts working in ELT and linguists in all language areas this is a landmark volume marrying applied linguistics to cultural linguistics in English language education studies Human and Mediated Communication around the World Marieke de Mooij, 2013-10-07 This book is unique in the sense that it offers a comprehensive review and analysis of human communication and mediated communication around the world This is one of the first attempts to do so in a systematic comprehensive way It challenges the assumption that Western theories of human communication and mass communication have universal applicability It surveys the applicability of mass communication theories to other than Western cultures The book explains the influence of culture on all forms of communication behavior be it personal mediated or mass communication It presents communication theories from around the world incorporating a vast body of literature from Europe Asia Africa and Latin America This updated information on important international perspectives that includes both interpersonal and mediated communication is presently not readily available in other sources The book offers an integrated approach to understanding the working of electronic means of communication that are hybrid media combining human and mediated communication These new media that are often presented as universal are even more culture bound than the traditional media

Developing Reflective TESOL Practitioners Through Teacher Education Andrzej Cirocki, Mark Wyatt, Xuesong (Andy) Gao, 2024-06-26 This textbook provides insights from Asian contexts into how reflective practice is nurtured on Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages TESOL and English Language Teaching ELT teacher education programmes There is increasing recognition worldwide that given the centrality of reflective practice to teachers ongoing professional development supporting teachers to become reflective practitioners should be integral to teacher education programmes Consequently tertiary level courses in areas such as TESOL and ELT tend to promote reflective practice supported by theoretical input from the burgeoning literature on reflection much of which is produced in the West Relatively under represented in the literature are global perspectives on reflective practice there are consequently relatively few accounts as to how reflective practice is embedded in teacher education programmes in different parts of the world including Asia Hence this book addresses a gap Contributing authors from fourteen countries provide insights into the ways in which teachers are helped to grow as reflective practitioners on their teacher education programmes in their unique contexts This textbook showcases how reflective teaching practices are developed supported by frameworks for critical reflection and in interaction with local educational policies These distinctive accounts aid readers in reflecting on the ways in which reflective practice is supported in their own teacher education contexts and in considering ways of enhancing the reflective dimension of their programmes This textbook showcases innovative reflective activities and can be used as a principal text or as supplemental reading on a range of TESOL and ELT teacher education courses
