

The Lady or The Tiger

Setting analysis

1. A Semi-Barbaric Kingdom: The story is set in a semi-barbaric kingdom, which suggests a society that is not fully civilized or ruled by traditional laws and systems of justice. Instead, the king relies on a system of justice that relies on chance and fate.

2. The Arena: The trial by ordeal takes place in a grand and opulent arena. It is described as having "a semi-barbaric splendor" and is a place where the king's subjects gather to witness the trials. The vivid description of the arena underscores its importance in the story and sets the stage for the climactic moment where the accused must choose between two doors.

3. The Two Doors: In the arena, there are two massive doors, one representing the lady and the other the tiger. These doors become a central symbol in the story. The stark contrast between them symbolizes the choice faced by the accused - a life of happiness and love or a brutal death.

4. The King's Court: The king's court is where the king himself presides over the trials and makes final judgments. The king is portrayed as a capricious and unpredictable ruler who enjoys the spectacle of the trials. His character and the setting of his court reflect the arbitrary and unfair nature of justice in this society.

5. The Princess's Apartment: The story introduces a beautiful and passionate princess who is deeply in love with a young man. Her apartment is described as being luxurious and sumptuous, suggesting her elevated status and providing a stark contrast to the brutality of the arena. The princess's quarters represent the emotional and moral conflict that lies at the heart of the story.

6. The Forest and The Cave: While not extensively described, the story mentions a forest and a cave where the princess has secret knowledge about what lies behind the two doors. These locations are mysterious and hidden, symbolizing the secrecy and intrigue surrounding the outcome of the trial.

7. The People: The story implies a society in which the common people
