A Fortified Far Right? Katalin Petho-Kiss, Rohan Gunaratna, 2024-04-30 Petho Kiss and Gunaratna understand the nature of the threat posed by the far right because of their findings and they propose effective provisions and mechanisms for detecting and countering it The book undertakes a consistent procession and empirical examination of available information to arrive at the recognition that in order to dissolve the complexity of the associated threat we need to scrutinize the functioning of far right threat groups In depth and consistent analysis on their mode of operation and mindset enables us to identify ways to detect and counter their malicious efforts and activities The theoretical framework for the analysis lies upon the concept of wave theory The main question that this book examines is whether far right terrorism constitutes a new wave of global terrorism One question emerges from this statement that requires further elaboration Is far right terrorism a novel wave of terrorism If yes how is it novel and what are the novelties or developments in it This book is for scholars as well as practitioners in the counter terrorism CT and the prevention countering violent extremism PCVE field Through specific case studies students studying CT and or PCVE could gain insight into the operational functionalities of far right threat groups This may help them to get a more accurate understanding of the threat posed by these entities Examining the recruitment funding communication practices and modus operandi of worrisome threat actors equips us to design the most effective countermeasures and identify the hiatuses in applicable legislative regimes Decolonial Mourning and the Caring Commons Encarnación Gutiérrez Rodríguez, 2023-08-15 This book is the product of an endless individual and collective process of mourning It departs from the author's mourning for her parents their histories and struggles in Germany as Gastarbeiter while it also engages with the political mourning of intersectional feminist movements against femicide in Central and South America the struggles against state and police misogynoir violence of SayHerName in the United States the resistance of refugees and migrantized people against the coloniality of migration in Germany and the intense political grief work of families relatives and friends who lost their loved ones in racist attacks from the 1980s until today in Germany Bearing witness to their stories and accounts this book explores how mourning is shaped both by its historical context and the political labor of caring commons while it also follows the building of a conviviality infrastructure of support against migration coloniality necropolitics dwelling toward transformative and reparative practices of common justice Neuerwerbungen der Bibliothek, 2006 Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen, 2001
