Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong, 2025-04-22 Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook up culture affect one's chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts PHILOSOPHY AND SOCIAL WORK: Philosophical Bases, Models and Sources for a Humanistic Social Work 2023 HARDCOVER EDITION, 2023-05-23 This edition comprises brings together incorporates synthesizes some of the author's works books articles chapters ideas fragments in print and electronic form with themes topics ideas that address the relation between philosophy and social work welfare policy with emphasis on the humanistic paradigm approach published in academic format between 2011 and 2023 No new sections were introduced but the bibliography was partially updated bringing to attention relevant titles that appeared after the previous edition In the book it is analyzed the complex and delicate relationship between philosophy and social work welfare between the philosophical system of concepts and ideas and the theory axiology of social work welfare especially from a humanistic perspective bringing face to face on the one hand the great branches or sub domains of philosophy respectively ontology ethics social philosophy personology and on the other hand the great sub domains or issues of social work welfare respectively the way of representation the client and the social problem difficult situation risk situation vulnerability resilience etc the system of constitutive values and principles the way of representation of the professional and the specific practice methodology etc The relation between philosophy and social work is no doubt biunivocal philosophy encompasses in its purpose and history the social issue dimension in its broader human sense especially with the preoccupations in the sphere of ethics and social philosophy but also of the existentialist humanistic and humanistic personalist philosophies as the social work as general theory and axiology cannot be conceived without a consistent philosophical representation Both the system of fundamental values and the mission or methodology of social work welfare are most often stated in the terms of an explicit applied social ethical and humanistic philosophy even if not always this aspect it is highlighted in an assumed way An important observation that must to be done is that the author does not proposes in his book and nor does it accomplish an exhaustive profound and complete approach and exposure of the relation connection from a humanistic point of view between philosophy and social work welfare between their sub domains but only he brings into attention this subject this theme very little approached in the literature in relation to its indisputable importance Regarding the destination of this paper its design content and bibliography are made in such a way that to be useful both to the academic community to students and teachers in philosophy and social sciences and practices and also to the professional community to social workers psychotherapists educators social managers etc
