The Bear That Wasn't:

The Bear That Wasn't Frank Tashlin, 2010-03-09 Once upon a time in fact it was Tuesday the Bear went into the woods to settle in for his long winter nap But when he awoke what had happened The trees were gone the grass was gone the flowers were gone and in their place were buildings cars a fenced off courtyard The Bear had no idea that he was in the middle of a factory Get back to work a man yelled out of the blue I don't work here said the Bear I'm a bear The man laughed and laughed Fine excuse for a man to keep from doing any work saying he's a bear And so it began and so it went with the Bear protesting his beariness all the way from the Third Vice President to the First and no one willing to believe that he wasn't just a silly man in a fur coat who needed a shave How the bear endured and how he finally prevailed are the subject of this delightful modern fairy tale beautifully illustrated with the author's inventive line drawings about sticking up for yourself no matter how many Foremen General Managers Vice Presidents or even Company Presidents stand in your way The Bear That Wasn't Frank Tashlin, 2007-11-01 A hibernating bear awakens to find himself smack dab in the middle of a sprawling industrial complex where people think he's just a silly man who wears a fur coat 46 illustrations *The Adventures of Aries. new ground and identifying developments and debates in the fields he helped to initiate They take up pressing challenges including biased idealizations of childhood in children s literature the tensions between teaching philosophy to and doing philosophy with young people the merits of theorizing childhood without theorizing children and how professional philosophy at once desires and resists a return to childhood This second volume in the Philosophy for Children Founders series is an important resource for philosophers educators and anyone interested in children s philosophical thinking developmental psychology what it means to philosophize with children the nature of childhood and how children s literature goes philosophical It will guide and inspire those who share Matthews conviction that the impulse to philosophize begins in early childhood Contributors in addition to Gareth B Matthews Stephanie Burdick Shepherd Cristina Cammarano Claire Cassidy Stanley Cavell Maughn Rollins Gregory Jennifer Glaser Walter Omar Kohan Megan Jane Laverty Jana Mohr Lone Karin Murriss Peter Shea Susan M Turner Susannah Sheffer Plato Was Wrong! David Shapiro,2012-03-08 Introduces a number of activities for exploring philosophical questions and problems with children from preschool through high school Publisher
