Chapter 25 Section 2 Industrialization Outline:

Industrialization before Industrialization Peter Kriedte, Hans Medick, Jürgen Schlumbohm, 1982-01-28 Beginning in the late Middle Ages and accelerating in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries there developed in many rural regions of Europe a domestic industry mass producing craft goods for distant markets This book presents an analysis of this industrialization before industrialization and considers the question whether it constituted a distinct mode of production different from the preceding feudal economy and from subsequent industrial capitalism or was part of a process of continuous evolution characterized by the spread of wage labour and the penetration of capitalism into the process of production It is a full scale attempt to take a look at the place of proto industrialization in the genesis of capitalism and will interest economic and social historians as well as anthropologists sociologists and others concerned with the development of capitalism
