Hinds, Theodore O. Windt, 1991-09-30 Rhetoric Lynn Boyd Hinds and Theodore Windt argue is central to shaping both political consciousness and political culture In this important new contribution to Praeger s Series in Political Communication they examine how the rhetoric of the early Cold War years was used to create and develop a national and international reality The pervasive political view of events motives actions and policy was largely created in the years between 1945 and 1950 and grew from a pre existing set of rhetorical beliefs as well as from the political speeches and pronouncements of the time Hinds and Windt focus their study on American rhetoric applied to Soviet American relations centering essentially on Europe They offer a brief outline of the theoretical principles used in their analysis and follow with a look at certain images of the USSR selected for use by American politicians In subsequent chapters the authors trace developments from the end of World War II to Winston Churchill s Iron Curtain speech thoroughly explore the British leader s address and its effect in dividing the world into two warring camps analyze the writing and presentation of the 1947 Truman Doctrine and its suggestion of two ways of life and detail the Truman Loyalty Program and the 1947 House Committee on Un American Activities hearings in Hollywood The remaining chapters discuss George Marshall s address originating the European Recovery Act George Kennan s Sources of Soviet Conduct contemporary critics and such proofs as the Korean War which showed the rhetoric to be correct This work will be an important reference tool for courses in political communication American history political science and presidential studies and a useful addition to library collections

The Presidency of Harry S. Truman Donald R. McCoy, 1984 In this volume in the American Presidency Series McCoy recounts and evaluates the record of the Truman Administration and identifies its distinctiveness and relations to the past its own time and the future Focusing on the problems that faced the United States between 1945 1953 he explains how Truman's vigor in championing civil rights health labor education and natural resource policies brought him immense unpopularity and how despite this Truman triumphed in 1948 winning bipartisan support for his foreign and military policies The author depicts Truman as an honest hard working capable and complex man and describes his relationships with his staff Congress foreign representatives the judiciary political parties the press the public and influential private citizens ISBN 0 7006 0252 6 25 00

The Cold War Comes to Main Street Lisle A. Rose,1999 In 1950 Main Street American was abruptly traumatized The sudden prospect of thermonuclear war with the Soviet Union Senator McCarthy's vicious anticommunist crusade and the beginning of the Korean War all combined to dampen the public mood The Cold War invaded every home Rose maintains that 1950 was a pivotal year for the nation He argues that the convergence of Korea McCarthy and the bomb wounded the nation in ways from which we've never fully recovered Brimming with originality this book makes readers look at the Cold War from a dozen different angles
