CONSTITUTION

A constitution is a nation's basic laws. It creates political institutions, allocates power within government, and often provides guarantees to citizens. A constitution sets the broad rules of the game of politics, allowing certain types of competition amount certain players.

Today, the declaration of Independence is studied more as a statement of philosophy than as a political all to arms.

THE ENGLISH HERITAGE: THE POWER OF IDEAS

John Locke was one of the most influential philosophers read by colonists. The foundation upon which Locke built his powerful philosophy was a belief in natural rights – rights inherent in human beings, not dependent on governments. Government, Locke argued, must be built on the
