

FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE

Simile

A simile is a type of figurative language which is used to compare one thing against another. Similes compare the likeness of two things and often feature the words 'like' or 'as': "As strong as an ox/ As brave as a lion."

Oxymoron

An oxymoron is a term which features two words which appear to contradict each other but make sense of the situation overall.

- For example: That woman is pretty ugly.

Idiom

An idiom is a phrase which bears no literal meaning to the situation it is describing but it implies the facts or story behind it.

- For example: There is a silver lining in every cloud.

Symbolism

Symbolism is another form of figurative language which is used to express an abstract idea using an item or words.

- For example: We had to put out a red alert.

Onomatopoeia

Onomatopoeia is a form of figurative language in which words which are used to describe a sound actually resemble the sound they are referring to.

- For example: The ghost said boo.

Irony

A form of figurative speech is irony. This is when a statement made is directly contradictory to the reality. It is also used to convey a style of sarcasm.

For example:

- I posted on Facebook about how bad Facebook is.
- I won the lottery on my retirement day.

Metaphor

A metaphor is a phrase describing something as something it is not in reality. It is used to compare two things symbolically. A metaphor literally describes something as something it is not. "Love is a battlefield"

Hyperbole

A hyperbole is a figure of speech which exaggerates the meaning of a sentence.

- For example: My granddad is as old as time.

Personification

Personification is a type of figurative language. It is used to give an inanimate object or item a sense of being alive. The speaker would talk to the object as if it could understand and was intelligent.

- For example: Why are you so heavy, suitcase?

Alliteration

Alliteration is a type of figurative speech in which the repetition of letters or sounds is used within one sentence.

- For example: Eagles end up eating entrails.

Puns

Puns are a form of figurative language which create a play on words. They add an extra meaning to a subject and are often seen as a form of joke or to be humorous.

- For example: A horse is a very stable animal.
