Tharu, 1998 This collections of essays is a reprint of a special issue of the Journal of English and Foreign Languages on Teaching Literature The contributions to this anthology reflect the debate in the thinking about English Literary Studies It discusses the refiguring of internationalism in the context of a new global order      Why I Am Not a Muslim Ibn Warraq, 2010-09-30 Those who practice the Muslim faith have resisted examinations of their religion They are extremely guarded about their religion and what they consider blasphemous acts by skeptical Muslims and non Muslims alike has only served to pique the world s curiosity This critical examination reveals an unflattering picture of the faith and its practitioners Nevertheless it is the truth something that has either been deliberately concealed by modern scholars or buried in obscure journals accessible only to a select few      Why I Am Not a Hindu Woman , 2021      The Caravan Delhi Press Magazines, 2018-05-08 Aadhaar was originally pitched as a way to eliminate identity fraud in the delivery of public benefits Today its application far exceeds that purpose Nandan Nilekani the technology billionaire who was the prime mover behind Aadhaar has said that data has become the new oil and that if we can restructure data to benefit every individual and every business then we can lead to enormous amount of activity and economic growth He has also said In the West the identity business was privatised That s a much more unsafe model than when a government issues an ID But while Aadhaar is presented as a way to mobilise Indians data for the public good the lines between those who run Aadhaar and those who profit from it are blurry Also in this issue Praveen Donthi on how the dilution of the SC ST Act is reigniting Dalit anger against the BJP and RSS Nilakantan RS on the deepening fault lines between southern states and the Indian union Kamayani Sharma on October s experiments with the Bollywood romance genre Sanam Meher on what Qandeel Baloch left behind Ross Adkin on how Brexit negotiations are raising uncomfortable

 Ramendra Nath,1993 Politics in Emotion Himadeep Muppidi,2014-09-25 The work focuses on a subaltern local sovereignty movement called Telangana in India Over the last ten years this movement has engaged in a massive political mobilization including strikes rallies work stoppages occupation of public spaces electoral contests 200 and more political suicides and media battles But interestingly enough notwithstanding a political mobilization that has brought day to day life to a halt on a number of occasions it has remained largely invisible in international media and global politics Fascinated by the social movement s international invisibility as well as the causes and conditions of its eruption around a city region that has become a showcase of new capitalist development Muppidi seeks to unpack this issue showing that this invisibility is not just intrinsically puzzling but also represents the operation of power on a global scale Investigating the conditions of invisibility in this instance can therefore tell us something important about the way global power works to produce visibility and invisibility in the 21st century world This book provides a unique resource for students of Postcolonialism International
