Africa In World History 2nd Edition:

History of Africa, Revised 2nd Edition Kevin Shillington, 2005-10-14 Now fully revised and updated this classic text offers an illustrated and critical narrative introduction to the history of Africa from earliest times to the present Beginning with the evolution of mankind itself the book traces the history of Africa through the millennia of the ancient world to the centuries of medieval and modern Africa The clear and simple language and the wealth of carefully chosen maps and photos combine to make an essential and accessible text

Africa in Global History Toyin Falola, Mohammed Bashir Salau, 2021-12-06 This handbook places emphasis on modern contemporary times and offers relevant sophisticated and comprehensive overviews It aims to emphasize the religious economic political cultural and social connections between Africa and the rest of the world and features comparisons as well as an interdisciplinary approach in order to examine the place of Africa in global history This book makes an important contribution to the discussion on the place of Africa in the world and of the world in Africa An outstanding work of scholarship it powerfully demonstrates that Africa is not marginal to global concerns Its labor and resources have made our world and the continent deserves our respect Mukhtar Umar Bunza Professor of Social History Usmanu Danfodiyo University Sokoto and Commissioner for Higher Education Kebbi State Nigeria This is a deep plunge into the critical place of Africa in global history The handbook blends a rich set of important tapestries and analysis of the conceptual framework of African diaspora histories imperialism and globalization By foregrounding the authentic voices of African interpreters of transnational interactions and exchanges the Handbook demonstrates a genuine commitment to the promotion of decolonized and indigenous knowledge on African continent and its peoples Samuel Oloruntoba Visiting Research Professor Institute of African Studies Carleton University

Recent Themes in the History of Africa and the Atlantic World Donald A. Yerxa, 2008 Described as the New York Review of Books for history Historically Speaking has emerged as one of the most distinctive historical publications in recent years actively seeking out contributions from a pantheon of leading voices in historical discourse This collection of articles and forums by prominent historians explores the relationship of Africa to world history maps the current state of the burgeoning field of Atlantic history and debates the accuracy of Olaudah Equiano's seminal narrative The standard approach of world historians often compresses the African past into interpretive frameworks that leave Africans without a history of their own Joseph C Miller makes the case here for an alternative approach a multicentric world history that gives voice to the various ways Africans experienced the past and an impressive array of Africanist and world historians respond The volume also assesses the state of the field of Atlantic history and includes a spirited forum on Vincent Carretta's provocative thesis that Olaudah Equiano author of the most important account available of the horrific Middle Passage was actually born in South Carolina and not Africa
