Latin American Film Industries Tamara L. Falicov, 2019-06-27 Film production in Latin America is as old as cinema itself but local film industries have always been in a triangulated relationship with Hollywood and European cinema This book situates Latin American film industries within the global circulation of film production exhibition and distribution charting the changes that the industries have undergone from the sound era to the present day Focusing in particular on Argentina Brazil and Mexico Tamara Falicov examines commonalities among Latin American film industries such as the challenges of procuring funding competition from Hollywood state funding battles and the fickle nature of audiences as well as censorship issues competition from television and the transnational nature of Latin American film She addresses production exhibition and distribution contexts and financing and co production with Europe and the United States as well as the role of film festivals in funding and circulating films both within and outside of Latin America Newer trends such as the revival of protectionist measures like the screen quota are framed in contrast to the U S s push for trade policy liberalization and issues of universal concern such as film piracy and new technologies and the role of television in helping and hindering Latin American cinema

Jane Campion Bernadette Wegenstein, 2025-01-23 Throughout films and television series like The Piano Bright Star In the Cut and Top of the Lake Jane Campion has constantly explored gender subjectivity and narrative representation In an intensive engagement with her cross medium career Bernadette Wegenstein examines how Campion gives a tangible and visible form to the female gaze in her exploration deployment and ultimately her subversion of highly formalized genres such as the period piece the thriller and the procedural drama Keeping a strict focus on her directorial practice and specifically on the capacity of her cinematography to induce both empathy and estrangement this vital new book shows how Campion is engaged in a permanent artistic and intuitive exposition of a profoundly feminist philosophical vision Wegenstein's work will be invaluable to scholars and students in gender and women's studies film studies and those on philosophy and film courses

A Critical Companion to Terrence Malick Joshua Sikora, 2020-10-07 From the dust of the Montana plains to the farthest reaches of the cosmos Terrence Malick's films have enchanted audiences with transcendent images of nature humanity and grace for nearly fifty years The contributors in this volume explore the profound implications of Malick's stories images processes and convictions as they offer comprehensive studies of the ten completed films of Terrence Malick Each chapter takes a reflective and retrospective approach considering new interpretations and frameworks for understanding Malick's unique creative choices Drawing from a range of diverse academic disciplines the collection analyzes the groundbreaking qualities of his cinematic style and the philosophical underpinnings that permeate his work Rigorously researched and unique the arguments presented within this volume shed new light on Malick and the cinematic medium

George Washington on Screen Leigh Ehlers Telotte, 2023-07-18 One of the most moving narratives from the American Revolution is the first presidential administration and the many precedents set by George Washington While media historians have extensively analyzed screen portrayals of the more sensational events of America in the 1750s to the 1790s far less attention has been paid to portrayals of the first presidency and the character of George Washington in film television and other formats This book addresses that gap by providing the most comprehensive analysis of the character of George Washington on screen Divided into two parts the book begins with an analysis of how the Washington character has evolved through time and screen media from early silent films to modern multimedia products In Part II a filmography documents each piece of screen media that features a representation of Washington It includes silent films theatrical films cartoons television and screen media from the 21st century such as streaming video games and multimedia presentations Arranged alphabetically each entry includes format type production details crew and cast lists and a brief description of Washington's character in relation to the plot

American Photography, 1938 Orson Wells at Work Jean-Pierre Berthomé, François Thomas, 2008 An in depth behind the camera survey of the entire career of Orson Welles

Silent Film Necrology Eugene Michael Vazzana, 2001 This greatly expanded over 18 500 entries versus 9 000 in the earlier edition and updated edition includes everyone from John Aasen an 8 foot 9 inch circus star who appeared in silent film comedies to Vladimir Kosma Zworykin who invented the iconoscope and kinescope that together constituted the first all electronic television system This is the most complete necrology available on people from the silent era The entries are arranged alphabetically by professional name and include birth and death dates the place of birth and death real name when it differs from the professional name married
