

reasons for low parental engagement in schools

TIME CONSTRAINT

Number 1 reason parents cannot volunteer at their children's school. Many take time off from work to occasionally volunteer for special events at their school when there is a regular and repeated communication from their PTA about the dire need for volunteers

LANGUAGE BARRIERS

For many immigrant parents, language is a big hurdle that keeps them from getting involved in their children's school. 18 of the 52 schools that offered language translation services or those who communicated to parents in multiple languages saw an increased involvement from parents in schools

LACK OF KNOWLEDGE

55% of those surveyed did not clearly understand the role and importance of PTA in their school. 75% of the parents were either not aware that PTA meetings were open to regular parents or were unaware of the PTA meeting schedule

INCONVENIENCE

75% of parents expressed challenges in managing the logistics of involvement, complaining about inconvenience of remembering multiple logins, using different tools and websites for different activities, lot of paper work and data entry

LACK OF MOTIVATION

Many parents lacked the motivation to get involved in their child's school because they did not feel appreciated or were not recognized for their time and effort
