Reflexive Translation Studies Silvia Kadiu, 2019-04-08 In the past decades translation studies have increasingly focused on the ethical dimension of translational activity with an emphasis on reflexivity to assert the role of the researcher in highlighting issues of visibility creativity and ethics In Reflexive Translation Studies Silvia Kadiu investigates the viability of theories that seek to empower translation by making visible its transformative dimension for example by championing the visibility of the translating subject the translator s right to creativity the supremacy of human translation or an autonomous study of translation Inspired by Derrida s deconstructive thinking Kadiu presents practical ways of challenging theories that argue reflexivity is the only way of developing an ethical translation She questions the capacity of reflexivity to counteract the power relations at play in translation between minor and dominant languages for example and problematises affirmative claims about self knowledge by using translation itself as a process of critical reflection In exploring the interaction between form and content Reflexive Translation Studies promotes the need for an experimental multi sensory and intuitive practice which invites students scholars and practitioners alike to engage with theory productively and creatively through translation

Translation studies: Central Issues: Language and culture; Types of translation; Decoding and recoding; Problems of equivalence; Loss and gain; Untranslatability; Science or 'secondary activity'? Susan Bassnett-McGuire,2002
