Beastly: Lindy's Diary Alex Flinn, 2012-01-31 See the 1 New York Times bestselling story Beastly through Lindy's eyes. This is her diary kept while living in captivity with the beast. Lindy's Diary captures all the romance and edgy mystery of the original Diary. I am locked away with no one to confide in but you and him. His fur, those claws, they caught me off guard at first but now I'm noticing something else about him, something deeper. It's the look in his eye. It tells me he's got a secret to keep. That's okay, I've got one too. I think I'm falling in love with him. Lindy

The Big Book of Beastly Mispronunciations Charles Harrington Elster, 2006 The definitive pronouncement on more than 1,500 of our most commonly mispronounced words. From the language maven Charles Harrington Elster comes an authoritative and unapologetically opinionated look at American speech. As Elster points out, there is no sewer in connoisseur, no dip in diphthong, and no pronoun in pronunciation. The culmination of twenty years of observation and study, The Big Book of Beastly Mispronunciations is more than just a pronunciation guide. Elster discusses past and present usage, alternatives, analogies, and tendencies, and offers plenty of advice, none of it objective. Whether you are adamant or ambivalent about the spoken word, Elster arms you with the information you need to decide what is acceptable for you. The Big Book of Beastly Mispronunciations has now been expanded and revised and features nearly 200 new words, including al Qaeda, bruschetta, commensurate, coup de grace, curriculum vita, exacerbate, gigabyte, hara kiri, machismo, Muslim, Niger, Pinochet, Pulitzer, sorbet, tinnitus, w as in www dot, and many, many more. Charles Harrington Elster is the pronunciation editor of Black's Law Dictionary and the author of various books about language, including Verbal Advantage: There's a Word for It and What in the Word? He has been a guest columnist on language for the Boston Globe and the New York Times Magazine, and a commentator on NPR and hundreds of radio shows around the country.

involve a pair of species whose co evolution has been achieved through behavioural adaptation driving positive selection pressures Humans go a step further opportunistically and it sometimes seems almost arbitrarily elaborating relationships with many other species whether through domestication pet keeping taming for menageries deifying pest control conserving iconic species or recruiting as mascots When we consider medieval attitudes to animals we are tackling a fundamentally human and distinctly idiosyncratic behavioural trait The sixteen papers presented here investigate animals from zoological anthropological artistic and economic perspectives within the context of the medieval world
