Beasts Of No Nation A Novel:

Beasts of No Nation Uzodinma Iweala, 2005-11-08 In this stunning debut novel Agu a young boy in an unnamed West African nation is recruited into a unit of guerrilla fighters as civil war engulfs his country Haunted by his father's own death at the hands of militants which he fled just before witnessing Agu is vulnerable to the dangerous yet paternal nature of his new commander While the war rages on Agu becomes increasingly divorced from the life he had known before the conflict started a life of school friends church services and time with his family still intact As he vividly recalls these sunnier times his daily reality spins further downward into inexplicable brutality primal fear and loss of selfhood His relationship with his commander deepens even as it darkens and his camaraderie with a fellow soldier lends a deceptive sense of normalcy to his experience In a powerful strikingly original voice that vividly captures Agu's youth and confusion Uzodinma Iweala has produced a harrowing deeply affecting novel Both a searing take on coming of age and a vivid document of the dark face of war Beasts of No Nation announces the arrival of an extraordinary new writer

The People's Right to the Novel Eleni Coundouriotis, 2014-09-15 This study offers a literary history of the war novel in Africa Coundouriotis argues that this genre aimed more specifically at African readers than the continent's better known bildungsroman tradition nevertheless makes an important intervention in global understandings of human rights The African war novel lies at the convergence of two sensibilities it encounters in European traditions the naturalist aesthetic and the discourse of humanitarianism whether in the form of sentimentalism or of human rights law Both these sensibilities are present in culturally hybrid forms in the African war novel reflecting its syncretism as a narrative practice engaged with the colonial and postcolonial history of the continent The war novel Coundouriotis argues stakes claims to collective rights that contrast with the individualism of the bildungsroman tradition The genre is a form of people's history that participates in a political struggle for the rights of the dispossessed

Narrating Human Rights in Africa Eleni Coundouriotis, 2020-12-13 Narrating Human Rights in Africa claims human rights from the perspective of artists from the African continent and situates the key theoretical concepts in African perspectives undercutting the stereotypes of victimhood and voicelessness Instead of positioning literary texts as illustrative of points already theorized elsewhere the author foregrounds the literature itself to show the concepts it offers the ideas and responses stemming from complex historical circumstances in Africa and expressed by African writers The book focuses on how narrative creates new categories of thought challenging human rights dogma whereas the sum of the literary voices evoked also stands by the values of social justice and protection of human rights The chapters take up key challenges to the narration of human rights in which the contribution of African writers is particularly important This includes human dignity in the resistance to apartheid the figure of the child soldier how humanitarianism's images affect representational strategies of contemporary African writers the challenge of testifying about rape in war how to evoke the disappeared body of the torture victim the centrality of flight in the refugee and migrant experiences and finally the long shadow of the heart of darkness motif Offering a sustained examination of the narrative treatment of key human rights concerns as expressed by African writers this book will be of interest to scholars of African literature postcolonial studies African studies and human rights

New Perspectives on African Childhood De-Valera NYM Botchway,Awo Sarpong,Charles Quist-Adade,2019-09-05 What does it mean to be a child in Africa In the detached Western media narratives of penury wickedness and death have dominated portrayals of African childhood The hegemonic lens of the West has failed to take into account the intricacies of not only what it means to be an African child in local and culturally specific contexts but also African childhood in general Challenging colonial discourses this edited volume guides the reader through different comprehensions and perspectives of childhood in Africa Using a blend of theory empiricism and history the contributors to this volume offer studies from a range of fields including African literature Afro centric psychology and sociology Importantly in its eclectic geographical coverage of Africa this book unashamedly presents the good the bad and the ugly of African childhood The resilience creativity pains and triumphs of African childhood are skilfully woven together to present the myriad of lived experiences and aspirations of children from across Africa As an important contribution to African childhood studies this book has the potential to be used by policymakers to shape sustain or change socio cultural economic and education systems that accommodate African childhood dynamics and experiences at different levels

Vulnerability and Security in Human Rights Literature and Visual Culture Alexandra Schultheis Moore, 2015-10-23 This book responds to the failures of human rights the way its institutions and norms reproduce geopolitical imbalances and social exclusions through an analysis of how literary and visual culture can make visible human rights claims that are foreclosed in official discourses Moore draws on theories of vulnerability precarity and dispossession to argue for the necessity of recognizing the embodied and material contexts of human rights subjects At the same time she demonstrates how these theories run the risk of reproducing the structural imbalances that lie at the core of critiques of human rights Pairing conventional human rights genres legal instruments human rights reports reportage and humanitarian campaigns with literary and visual culture Moore develops a transnational feminist reading praxis of five sites of rights and their violation over the past fifty years UN human rights instruments and child soldiers in Nigerian literature human rights reporting and novels that address state sponsored ethnocide in Zimbabwe the international humanitarian campaigns and disaster capitalism in fiction of Bhopal India the work of M decins Sans Frontiers in the Sahel Afghanistan Democratic Republic of Congo and Burma as represented in various media campaigns and in photo graphic narratives and finally the human rights campaigns fiction and film that have brought Indonesia s history of anti leftist violence into contemporary public debate These case studies underscore how human rights norms are always subject to conditions of imaginative representation and how literature and visual culture participate in that cultural imaginary Expanding feminist theories of embodied and imposed vulnerability Moore demonstrates the importance of situating human rights violations not only in the context of neo liberal development policies but also in relation to the growth of security networks that serve the nation state often at the expense of the security of specific subjects and populations In place of conventional victims and agents the intersection of vulnerability and human rights opens up readings of human rights claims and suffering that are at once embodied and shareable yet which run the risk of cooptation by security rhetoric The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 2006 The African Book Publishing Record ,2008 Book Review Digest ,1915 Poets & Writers ,2007 Gentleman of Leisure Susan Hall, 2006 A facsimile edition of the first 1972 edition that followed Silky a pimp and his women through an entire year of life on the streets of New York City Bob Adelman dives headlong onto the world of the original Macks and players the Big City Pimps in this in depth photographic exploration of the underworld figures that populated the streets of New York City Armed with only a camera Adelman entered the lives of Silky and his women This facsimile edition re introduces this classic of the times and makes available once more this compelling and hugely popular book The Publishers Weekly ,2006 New Perspectives on the Black Atlantic Bénédicte Ledent, Pilar Cuder Domínguez, 2012 This collection of essays attempts to expand the notion of the Black Atlantic beyond its original racial geographical linguistic and cultural borders while acknowledging its remarkable ability to disturb established historical truths and to go beyond traditional dichotomies thereby providing an essential tool for cross cultural understanding It is divided into four sections each of them dealing with a different approach to the question of the Black Atlantic Definitions touches on the various limitations of Gilroy s original concept Readings focuses on how the Black Atlantic can be productively used in readings of certain literary texts Practices shifts towards the practical applications of the concept in order to explore the impact it has had on academic disciplines and examine to what extent it may have altered their epistemology and working procedures Finally Dialogues engages with the Black Atlantic from the perspectives of two creative writers whose work includes transatlantic themes and characters Teaching Fiction ,1974 Restaging War in the Western World Maartje Abbenhuis, Sara Buttsworth, 2009-03-15 Drawing on an eclectic array of historical and cultural studies this collection seeks to move the perspectives that are marginal to mainstream war stories namely those of non combatants to center stage It does so through analyzing the ways in which wars real and imagined impact and have impacted individuals all over the western world This book illustrates the ever present reality of war since the late nineteenth century affecting adults and children alike regardless of whether they are the participants in or the witnesses of theatres of conflict Text and Theories in Transition Charles Bodunde, 2010 Library Journal ,2005
