Rey De-Heavens The Blueprint Ramón H. Guiardinú,2026-03-24 In a universe where divine infernal and mortal realms overlap and break again and again Rey De Heavens is the thread that does not snap He begins as a monster marked by blood that is not entirely vampiric or werewolf dragged from the start into territories where magic faith and cruelty are as solid as gravity The book follows him through very different phases of his life from violent academies in dystopian futures where technology monitors even the last thought through cities consumed by hell made flesh distant planets fortresses hanging over dying worlds and wars between gods trying to reset the balance of creation with repeated cataclysms In each of these stages Rey faces something that is always the same thing with a different mask the temptation to use his power as a final weapon even if the price is his capacity to feel empathy Rey De Heavens is not just a saga of battles between angels demons and gods It is the record of a being who as he climbs each rung of power sheds layers of emotions and is forced to ask whether his existence is a gift or a curse Among ruined galaxies cities devoured by resentment and mystical books that rewrite reality the real war is not only for control of the cosmos but for something smaller and harder the possibility of remaining someone and not just a force when everything around him pushes him to become something else
