Georges Perec: A Life in Words David Bellos, 2010-11-30 It's hard to see how anyone is ever going to better this User's Manual to the life of Georges Perec Gilbert Adair Sunday Times Winner of the Prix Goncourt for Biography 1994 George Perec 1936-82 was one of the most significant European writers of the twentieth century and undoubtedly the most versatile and innovative writer of his generation David Bellos's comprehensive biography which also provides the first full survey of Perec's irreverent polymathic oeuvre explores the life of an anguished comical and endearingly modest man who worked quietly as an archivist in a medical research library The French son of Jewish immigrants from Poland he remained haunted all of his life by his father's death in the war fighting to defend France and his mother's in Auschwitz Birkenau His acclaimed novel A Void 1969 written without using the letter e has been seen as an attempt to escape from the words premere and even George Perec His career made an auspicious start with Things A Story of the Sixties 1965 which won the Prix Renaudot He then pursued an idiosyncratic and ambitious literary itinerary through the intellectual ferment of Paris in the 1960s and 1970s He belonged to the Ouvrier de Littérature Potentielle OuLiPo a radically inventive group of writers whose members included Raymond Queneau and Italo Calvino Perec achieved international celebrity with Life A User's Manual 1978 which won the Prix Medicis and was voted Novel of the Decade by the Salon du Livre He died in his mid forties after a short illness leaving a truly puzzling detective novel 53 Days incomplete Professor Bellos's book enables us at once to relish the most wilfully bizarre aspects of Perec's oeuvre and to understand the whys and wherefores of his protean nature Jonathan Romney Literary Review Suicide Risk Assessment and Prevention

Maurizio Pompili, 2022-12-19 This book explores suicide prevention perspectives from around the world considering both professionals points of view as well as first person accounts from suicidal individuals Scholars around the globe have puzzled over what makes a person suicidal and what is in the minds of those individuals who die by suicide Most often the focus is not on the motives for suicide nor on the phenomenology of this act but on what is found from small cohorts of suicidal individuals This book offers a tentative synthesis of a complex phenomenon and sheds some light on models of suicide that are less frequently encountered in the literature Written by international experts it makes a valuable contribution to the field of suicidology that appeals to a wide readership from mental health professionals to researchers in suicidology and students

Suicide and Its Prevention René F. W. Diekstra, 1989 In many countries of the world the number of persons that commit or attempt suicide has risen considerably over the past two decades Particularly among young people suicide rates have increased dramatically suicide now ranking as the second or third cause of death among them The causes of this development have been questioned by health care workers scientists and policy makers Although much still remains unknown it has become increasingly clear that one way in which a society affects the probability that an individual will die by his or her own hand is through the attitudes it adopts towards suicide Modern society confronts people more and more often with attitudes and models such as in the mass media that express a permissive stance towards voluntary death in a variety of circumstances Evidence suggest that imitation might indeed play a significant role in the frequency of suicide A related aspect is the attitudes care givers entertain themselves towards suicide This affects both the way in which they approach and treat individuals in suicidal crisis as well as the readiness of these individuals to look for professional help The present
