The Electrical Journal ,1906 The Evolution of UN Sanctions Enrico Carisch, Loraine Rickard-Martin, Shawna R. Meister, 2017-10-27 Marking the 50th anniversary of UN sanctions this work examines the evolution of sanctions from a primary instrument of economic warfare to a tool of prevention and protection against global conflicts and human rights abuses The rise of sanctions as a versatile and frequently used tool to confront the challenges of armed conflicts terrorism the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and violations of international humanitarian and human rights law is rooted in centuries of trial and error of coercive diplomacy The authors examine the history of UN sanctions and their potential for confronting emerging and future threats including cyberterrorism and information warfare environmental crimes and corruption This work begins with a historical overview of sanctions and the development of the United Nations system It then explores the consequences of the superpowers Cold War stalemate the role of the Non Aligned Movement and the subsequent transformation from a blunt comprehensive approach to smart and fairer sanctions By calibrating its embargoes asset freezes and travel bans the UN developed a set of tools to confront the new category of risk actors armed non state actors and militias global terrorists arms merchants and conflict minerals and cyberwarriors Section II analyzes all thirty UN sanctions regimes adopted over the past fifty years These narratives explore the contemporaneous political and security context that led to the introduction of specific sanctions measures and enforcement efforts often spearheaded for good or ill by the permanent five members of the Security Council Finally Section III offers a qualitative analysis of the UN sanctions system to identify possible areas for improvements to the current Security Council structure dominated by the five veto wielding victors of World War II This work will be of interest to researchers and practitioners in criminal justice particularly with an interest in security as well as related fields such as international relations and political science

The Electrician, 1906 Grazing in Future Multi-scapes: From Thoughtscapes to Landscapes, Creating Health from the Ground Up Pablo Gregorini, Iain James Gordon, Carol Kerven, Fred Provenza, 2022-09-27 This Research Topic is hosted in partnership with the Grazing in Future Multi Scapes international workshop The workshop will be held online 30th May 5th June 2021 Throughout different landscapes of the world grazing herbivores fulfill essential roles in ecology agriculture economies and cultures including families farms and communities Not only do livestock provide food and wealth they also deliver ecosystem services through the roles they play in environmental composition structure and dynamics Grazing as a descriptive adjective locates herbivores within a spatial and temporal pastoral context where they naturally graze or are grazed by farmers ranchers shepherds etc In many cases however pastoralism with the single objective of maximizing animal production and or profit has transformed landscapes diminishing biodiversity reducing water and air quality accelerating loss of soil and plant biomass and displacing indigenous animals and people These degenerative landscape transformations have jeopardized present and future ecosystem and societal services breaking the natural integration of land water air health society and culture Land users policy makers and societies are calling for alternative approaches to pastoral systems a call for diversified adaptive and integrative agro ecological and food pastoral systems designs that operate across multiple scales and scapes e g thought social land food health wild scapes simultaneously There needs to be a paradigm shift in pastoral production systems and how grazing herbivores are managed grazed within them derived initially from a change in perception of how they provide wealth The thoughtsapes will include paradigm shifts where grazers move away from the actual archetype of pastoralism future landscapes are re imagined and regenerative and sustainable management paradigms are put in place to achieve these visions From this will come a change in collective thinking of how communities and cultures socialscapes perceive their relationships with pastoral lands The landscapes are the biotic and abiotic four dimensional domains or environments in need of nurture Landscapes are the tables where humans and herbivores gain their nourishment i e foodscapes Foodscapes and dietary perceptions dictate actions and reactions that are changing as developed countries grapple with diseases related to obesity and people starve in developing countries Societies are demanding healthscapes and nutraceutical foodscapes and paradoxically some are moving away from animal products While indigenous species of animals including humans wildscapes have been displaced from many of their lands by monotonic pastoralism multifunctional pastoral systems can be designed in view of dynamic multi scapes of the future The purpose of this Research Topic is to influence future mental and practical models of pastoralism in continually evolving multi scapes We seek a collection of papers that will cultivate such a shift in thinking towards future models of sustainable multipurpose pastoralism The contributions will be synthesized to establish how multifunctional pastoral systems can be re imagined and then designed in view of the integrative dynamics of sustainable future multi scapes
