Natural Hazard - Answer>> A naturally occurring process or event that has the potential to affect people.

Natural Disaster - Answer>> A major natural hazard that causes significant social, economic and environmental change.

Vulnerability - Answer>> The ability to anticipate, cope with, resist and recover from a natural hazard.

Resilience - Answer>> The ability to bounce back after a natural hazard.

When does a natural hazard become a natural disaster. -

Answer>> A disaster occurs when a hazard strikes a vulnerable population that cannot cope with the impacts using its own resources. The scale of the disaster will depend on two factors:

1. The magnitude of the disaster
2. The vulnerability of the population

Degg's model - Answer>> A good way of portraying the magnitude of the disaster and the vulnerability of the population and how they interrelate. The greater the overlap the bigger the disaster will be.

centre Two well known examples are the OECD report on education and training policy Teachers Matter and the McKinsey Company report entitled How the World s Best Performing School Systems Come Out on Top It now seems more important than ever to highlight some alternatives that might contribute to a broader understanding of the meaning of being a teacher In a time of standardised performance and accountability this special issue raises critical questions about the space for teachers agency and teachers as curriculum agents The different articles from some of our most distinguished researchers in the field provide essential perspectives on the question of where when and how teachers matter Our interest is not primarily to understand the scope of teachers agency but rather to understand what becomes important for teachers in their everyday activities such as teaching students handling educational norms and rules working in a local as well as a global society etc A common theme throughout the articles is that teachers matter in spaces where they can act as moral subjects in their profession in the present drawing on collective and individual experiences of the past whilst imagining a desired future This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Curriculum Studies
