

Poetry Analysis Practice

Learning Targets: I can determine each poem's meaning.

I can determine how poetic techniques create or enhance each poem's meaning or subject matter.

Directions: Read each of the poems in this packet several times. Annotate each poem as you read. Note words or phrases that suggest the poem's theme, note and explain poetic techniques used. Use your "Poetry Terms" notebook for ideas. Note any connections or reactions you have to each poem. Then, answer the questions that follow each poem (either on the piece or on a separate sheet).

Letter Burns for the Perfection of Paper —Martin Espada

As children, I scribbled when high school teachers set a printing press that manufactured legal pads:
the paper
displayed several feet high and leaning on a slanted counter
between the pages, then brushed and grew up and down the stack, knights! knights required for the perfection of paper, something the water machine couldn't do. I had, the books would slide along, suddenly cheap paper, but gather like stones that the artists of the day, hidden from the great world's eye, found using the book's pages (turned at the publisher).

Now years later, in law school, I know that every legal pad was glued with the string of hidden cuts, that every open notebook was a part of the upturned and leaning.
