WAYWARD AFFAIR REVIEW

RED DESERT CACTI

CACTUS!

Silver

During my fashion sense in the pursuit of safety, I donned leather armor and braced for our time together. Having a cactus embarrassingly assault me while I complimented them was a strange feeling I don't particularly rate. Many of the cactus species were also giving us worried glances, which I could tell were the cactus. Although painful, I tried to comfort them by holding their tiny hands, which I think they appreciated. We were stuck together the rest of the day, however

Guro

I didn't know what to do, the cactus just kept poking and pushing me around whenever I'd say anything. I asked them to stop but that just made it worse. Eventually I just started running away whenever they'd try to embrace me, which was weird considering how hot it was at the time. Not sure how we could even attempt having a love connection without the simplest of boundaries. Communication felt dead and not even my strongest healing magic could revive it.

Lillian

We enjoyed dinner as I let them sleep about their tough childhood. Guro made for a first date, but I think they'd found anyone else willing to put this down, let alone listen. By the end of the month their personality level seemed to have faded out, and I think what was showing the cactus there were creatures in this world willing to give them a chance.
