

APUSH Unit 8: 1945-1980

The Cold War from 1945 to 1980

- The Soviet Union and the United States emerged from WWII as the two dominant world powers, but the communist Soviet Union was upset about the ascendancy of the democratic United States
- A cold war is a conflict between two belligerents in which neither engages in open warfare with the other
  - More battle of ideologies than battle of violence
- The Russian Revolution in 1917 first alerted the US to communism and now the Soviet Union was trying to spread communism throughout the world rather than contain its beliefs like the US wanted
- Would the world be remade in the image of authoritarian communism or democratic capitalism?
- Events sparking mutual suspicion and distrust between the US and the SU
  - After WWII, FDR (US), Stalin (SU), and Churchill (UK) agreed that eastern European nations would choose their leaders through democratic elections at the Yalta Conference but then the SU claimed eastern European nations as a “buffer zone” between them and Germany
  - The US, SU, UK, and France agreed at the end of WWII to divide Germany and Berlin into 4 occupation zones (Berlin was within the Soviet sector of Germany)
    - These divisions were a peacetime necessity but the Soviet’s portion became another communist state
    - SU wanted to keep Germany weak to reduce its threat and extract reparations from them, but western powers wanted to help Germany become economically strong again for stable Europe
    - Winston Churchill’s said “an iron curtain has descended across the continent”
- American response to spread of Soviets and communism
  - Containment
    - President Harry Truman issued the Truman Doctrine, which advocated the containment of communism by lending support to any country that was threatened by Soviet communism
    - The Truman Doctrine was issued as a result of Soviet pressure on Turkey and Greece to accommodate Soviet Goals
    - Congress agreed to spend $400 million to fend off Soviet pressure in Turkey and Greece
  - The Marshall Plan

As a City on a Hill Daniel T. Rodgers, 2018-11-13 How an obscure Puritan sermon came to be seen as a founding document of American identity and exceptionalism For we must consider that we shall be as a city upon a hill John Winthrop warned his fellow Puritans at New England's founding in 1630 More than three centuries later Ronald Reagan remade that passage into a timeless celebration of American promise How were Winthrop's long forgotten words reinvented as a central statement of American identity and exceptionalism In As a City on a Hill leading American intellectual historian Daniel Rodgers tells the surprising story of one of the most celebrated documents in the canon of the American idea In doing so he brings to life the ideas Winthrop's text carried in its own time and the sharply different yearnings that have been attributed to it since As a City on a Hill shows how much more malleable more saturated with vulnerability and less distinctly American Winthrop's Model of Christian Charity was than the document that twentieth century Americans invented Across almost four centuries Rodgers traces striking shifts in the meaning of Winthrop s words from Winthrop s own anxious reckoning with the scrutiny of the world through Abraham Lincoln s haunting reference to this almost chosen people to the city on a hill that African Americans hoped to construct in Liberia to the era of Donald Trump As a City on a Hill reveals the circuitous unexpected ways Winthrop s words came to lodge in American consciousness At the same time the book offers a probing reflection on how nationalism encourages the invention of timeless texts to straighten out the crooked realities of the past Monthly Index of Russian Accessions Library of Congress.
