Power And Control Why Charming Men Can Make Dangerous Lovers:

Power and Control Sandra Horley, 2018-02-27 Give this book to a sister a mother a friend it may change her life
LAUREN LAVERNE One in four women will experience domestic violence We all know a woman whose life is dominated and controlled by her partner and we might not even realise it Many women find themselves in the thrall of the Charm Syndrome Man a man whose distinct pattern of behaviour and use of charm ultimately serves to gain control over the woman In the new edition of her classic work Sandra Horley CBE draws on almost four decades supporting abused women to provide an insight into the reality behind the mask of the charming man The book s aim is to show women they are not alone and to help them walk away from the confusing dangerous situation they find themselves in Even after devastating emotional and physical abuse there is hope This is a story of courage and strength told by women who have reclaimed their lives so that others may too Gluten for Punishment: Just Desserts for the Heartbroken, Lovesick, and Jilted Julie Seyler, 2025-07-11 Julie Seyler s love life has been a recipe for disaster and she has the baked goods to prove it In this humorous and heartfelt collection beloved baking blogger Julie Seyler shares stories of love loss and everything in between accompanied by her signature dessert recipes in one irresistible gluten filled volume Whether she s arriving home after an awkward first date or seeking comfort once a promising relationship goes up in flames Julie knows exactly where to turn when things go awry the kitchen And after three decades spent dating a cast of brooding complicated Gen X creatives her recipe box is overflowing even while her bed remains empty From frustrating flings with the emotionally unavailable to an unflinching exploration of the love that lingers after tragedy Gluten for Punishment is a wry and honest reminder that while relationships are rarely predictable a sweet ending always awaits in the kitchen Mothering Through Domestic Violence Lorraine Radford, Marianne Hester, 2006 Based on findings from six primary research studies carried out by the authors themselves as well as other published research this book reveals how undermining mothering plays a key role in locking women into abusive relationships and exacerbating the damage done by domestic violence Surviving Domestic Violence Paula Wilcox, 2006-04-12 This book follows a group of women pursuing safety from abusive relationships Seven influential social dimensions are examined power emotion children home economic resource informal and community support A gendered analysis of external structural contexts as well as individual responses reveals the constraints women face Policing UK Honour-Based Abuse Crime Rachael Aplin, 2019-06-10 This book examines the different forms that honour based abuse crimes take and analyses the discretionary police practices employed when responding to these incidents Honour based abuse is an incident or crime involving violence threats of violence intimidation coercion or abuse committed in order to protect or defend the honour of an individual family and or community for a perceived breach of their code of behaviour Based on unique UK police data it includes examination of one hundred honour abuse cases and interviews with fifteen predominantly detective specialist police officers that investigate this crime This book recognises the challenges encountered

when policing honour based abuse and offers recommendations for addressing them It will particularly benefit police forces in England and Wales the Home Office scholars in gendered violence and policing and non government organisations charities supporting victims by highlighting some of the issues associated with policing partnership working arrangements and safeguarding victims of honour based abuse crimes Research Handbook on Domestic Violence and Abuse Mandy Burton, Vanessa Bettinson, Kayliegh Richardson, Ana Speed, 2024-09-06 This Research Handbook examines the evolution of understandings and legal definitions of domestic abuse illustrating the importance of expanding these beyond physical violence to encompass coercive control Drawing on academic literature legal doctrine and the lived experiences of victims and survivors it highlights how responses to domestic abuse can be improved in civil family and criminal justice systems

Policing Public Protection Rachael Aplin, 2024-12-27 This book explores the effective policing of public protection issues from chapter authors with varied research and practitioner experience The collection is aimed at detective police officers in specialist units response and neighbourhood officers as well as new recruits in policing public protection Each chapter offers an understanding of victimology perpetration and the effective policing and investigation of such crimes It explores questions such as why crimes happen who the victims are what perpetrators do and why they might target certain victims This book explores international literature the evidence base past mistakes and what effective and professional policing should look like The intention is to improve the policing and investigation of such complex crimes Each chapter provides a concise summary a comprehensive literature review and a list of key actions for practice that officers should consider It closes with a list of key resources These chapters specifically cover the following thematic crime areas such as domestic abuse child sexual abuse gendered violence and trafficking This book also speaks to local authorities Social Services Trading Standards professionals in Education Health and Probation academics and Non Government Organisations NGO in the charitable sector Consent Alan Reed, Michael Bohlander, Nicola Wake, Emma Smith, 2016-10-14 This volume presents a leading contribution to the substantive arena relating to consent in the criminal law In broad terms the ambit of legally valid consent in extant law is contestable and opaque and reveals significant problems in adoption of consistent approaches to doctrinal and theoretical underpinnings of consent This book seeks to provide a logical template to focus the debate The overall concept addresses three specific elements within this arena embracing an overarching synergy between them This edifice engages in an examination of UK provisions with specialist contributions on Irish and Scottish law and in contrasting these provisions against alternative domestic jurisdictions as well as comparative contributions addressing a particularised research grid for consent The comparative chapters provide a wider background of how other legal systems treat a variety of specialised issues relating to consent in the context of the criminal law The debate in relation to consent principles continues for academics practitioners and within the criminal justice system Having expert descriptions of the wider issues surrounding the particular discussion and of other legal systems approaches serves to stimulate and inform that debate This collection will be a major source of reference for future discussion The British National Bibliography Arthur
