The Writing of the Nation by Its Elite MK Raghavendra, 2021-07-15 This volume examines the idea of India as it emerges in the writing of its anglophone elite post 2000 Drawing on a variety of genres including fiction histories non fiction assessments economic political and business travel accounts and so on this book maps the explosion of English language writing in India after the economic liberalization and points to the nation's sense of its growing importance as a producer of culture From Ramachandra Guha to William Dalrymple from Arundhati Roy to Pankaj Mishra from Jhumpa Lahiri to Amitav Ghosh from Amartya Sen to Gurcharan Das from Barkha Dutt to Tarun Tejpal this investigation takes us from aesthetic imaginings of the nation to its fractured political fault lines the ideological predispositions of the writers often pointing to an asymmetrically constituted India A major intervention on how postcolonial India is written about and imagined in the anglophone world this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of cultural studies literature history and South Asian studies It will also be of interest to general readers with an inclination towards India and Indian writing

Language, Style and Variation in Contemporary Indian English Literary Texts Esterino Adami, 2022-09-30

Language Style and Variation in Contemporary Indian English Literary Texts is a volume which examines the linguistic and stylistic forms of Indian English in new fictional texts to explore the power of language to construct meaning express identity and convey ideology Specifically this study proposes the elaboration and application of postcolonial stylistics i e an interdisciplinary methodology that uses different disciplines such as literary linguistics and postcolonial studies as a critical lens to read contemporary Indian authors like Jeet Thayil Deepa Anappara Avni Doshi Tabish Khair and Megha Majumdar The linguistic fabric of their fiction is investigated in a series of case studies observing the stylistic rendition of a wide range of themes and tropes such as the representation of Otherness drug discourse lament and the senses which cumulatively portray aspects of the current Indian narrative scenario The book develops ideas growing out of several disciplines to reach a fuller understanding of cultural phenomena in the postcolonial context and by extension in the social world Writers of Indian Diaspora Bijender Singh, Protibha Mukherjee Sahukar, Surendra Kumar Sao, 2024-09-05 This anthology is a voluminous compendium of 37 unique and meticulously crafted chapters each analysing a separate text by a pioneering Indian diaspora writer with no repetition of authors or texts This enhances the analytical depth and diversity of this unique anthology Within these chapters a carefully curated and evocative array of diverse themes and concerns addressed by these writers unfolds offering a comprehensive exploration of the diasporic literary terrain Assimilation and acculturation in the host country as well as repatriation in the native country can be challenging issues for the immigrants who have lived abroad for many years These chapters attempt to elucidate the distinctive mosaic of themes motifs and perspectives embedded in the selected works of Indian diaspora writers Unlike similar anthologies this compilation is a painstaking granular exploration of the literary oeuvre of Indian diaspora writers highlighting an eclectic mix of genres and remarkable diaspora experiences In an era characterised by increased migration and cultural hybridity this anthology is an essential read for scholars researchers faculty members students and all connoisseurs of literature alike A History of the Indian Novel in English Ulka Anjaria, 2015-07-08 A History of the Indian Novel in English traces the development of the Indian novel from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century up until the present day Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes extensive essays that shed light on the legacy of English in Indian writing Organized thematically these essays examine how English was made Indian by writers who used the language to address specifically Indian concerns Such concerns revolved around the question of what it means to be modern as well as how the novel could be used for anti colonial activism By the 1980s the Indian novel in English was a global phenomenon and India is now the third largest publisher of English language books Written by a host of leading scholars this History invites readers to question conventional accounts of India s literary history

The City Speaks Subashish Bhattacharjee, Goutam Karmakar, 2022-09-29 This book studies the significance and representation of the city in the writings of Indian poets graphic novelists and dramatists It demonstrates how cities give birth to social images perspectives and complexities and explores the ways in which cities and the characters in Indian literature coexist to form a larger literary framework of interpretations Drawing on the theoretical concepts of Western urban thinkers such as Henri Lefebvre Georg Simmel Walter Benjamin Edward Soja David Harvey and Diane Levy as well as South Asian thinkers such as Ashis Nandy Arjun Appadurai Vinay Lal and Ravi Sundaram the book projects against a seemingly monolithic and homogenous Western qualification of urban literatures and offers a truly unique and contentious presentation of Indian literature Unfolding the urban literary landscape of India the volume lays the groundwork for an urban studies approach to Indian literature It will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature especially Indian writing in English urban studies and South Asian studies
