Andre Malraux:

André Malraux-past, Present, Future Guy Suarès, André Malraux, José Bergamín, 1974 André Malraux Curtis Cate, 1995 No modern French writer has aroused as much passion as Andre Malraux who combined a life of action worthy of Indiana Jones with a political and literary career of extreme controversy Lazarus André Malraux, 1978 André Malraux Harold Bloom, 1988 Andre Malraux Wilbur Merrill Frohock, 1947 The Book on the Floor WALTER GRASSKAMP, 2016-12-10 In 1954 the French writer politician and publisher Andr Malraux posed at home for a photographer from the magazine Paris Match surrounded by pages from his forthcoming book Le musée imaginaire de la sculpture mondiale The enchanting metaphor of the musée imaginaire imaginary museum was built upon that illustrated art book and Malraux was one of its greatest champions Drawing on a range of contemporary publications he adopted images and responded to ideas Indeed Malraux's book on the floor is a variation of photographer Andr Vigneau's spectacular Encyclopédie photographique de l'art published in five volumes from 1935 on years before Malraux would enter this field Both authors were engaged in juxtaposing artworks via photographs and publishing these photographs by the hundreds but Malraux was the better sloganeer Starting from a close examination of the photograph of Malraux in his salon art historian Walter Grasskamp takes the reader back to the dawn of this genre of illustrated art book He shows how it catalyzed the practice of comparing works of art on a global scale He retraces the metaphor to earlier reproduction practices and highlights its ubiquity in contemporary art ending with an homage to the other pioneer of the museum without walls the unjustly forgotten Vigneau André Malraux G. Harris, 1995-12-18 This book analyses Malraux's writing from his journalism in Indochina to his novels art studies and anti memorialist essays Cutting through the established dual biographical image of Malraux as a committed leftwinger and revolutionary novelist turned unconditional Gaullist and diehard anti Communist at the Liberation it makes a balanced assessment of Malraux as a non ideological if elitist artist who shaped his public role as much as he shaped the existence of his heroes both novelistic and real The Kingdom of Farfelu André Malraux, 2005 Fiction Translated from the French by W B Keckler Together in one volume the first ever English translations of Andre Malraux's two most extreme works of fiction the voluptuous surrealist novella The Kingdom of Farfelu 1928 and Paper Moons a funny ferociously absurdist novella from 1921 Those who thought they knew Malraux as the heroic adventurer fierce moralist and author of Man's Fate should be prepared to have their minds blown New York Press French writer and politician Andre Malraux 1901 1976 was one of the most distinguished novelists of the 20th century He is the author of The Royal Way Man's Fate The Walnut Trees of Altenburg Saturn An Essay on Goya and Lazarus to list only some favorites among his many titles André Malraux John Beals Romeiser, 1994 An annotated listing of critical studies in English French German Italian and Spanish covering a half century of French author Malraux's 1901 1976 work Focusing on the critical reception of Malraux's work that began after the fall of France to Nazi Germany in 1940 it covers all significant contributions to Malraux scholarship including magazine articles essays from scholarly or literary journals and edited collections and monographs Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR André Malraux André Malraux,1957 Malraux Axel Madsen,2015-03-17 The authorized biography of the most important man of letters in twentieth century France Andr Malraux French novelist art theorist and France s Minister of Cultural Affairs Andre Malraux, Metamorphosis and Imagination F. E. Dorenlot,Micheline Tison-Braun,1979 André Malraux Geoffrey T. Harris,2000 Andr Malraux s output spanning some 55 years ranges from novels to philosophical essays studies on the plastic arts and memorialist essays The present volume is significantly innovative in that it sets out to elucidate this diversity by focusing for the first time and from a variety of perspectives on the erosion of boundaries which characterises Malraux s work This erosion is multi faceted and includes the crossing of genre boundaries the appropriation of the literary text as political vehicle the exploitation of the literary text as historical document contemporary history as a source of literary texts the slippage between autobiography and the novel autobiography and the memorialist essay and between fiction and the memorialist essay Contributors to this volume explore the complex relationship between fact and fiction underpinning Malraux s writing and also his life An understanding of Malraux s determination to ignore boundaries is crucial to the understanding of his life and work In this respect the present study will interest academics and students both undergraduate and postgraduate of French literary and cultural studies

Americanism, Media and the Politics of Culture in 1930s France David A. Pettersen,2016-05-20 First book to focus on Americanism and its consideration of French film and literature The book is organized around individual figures texts and films making it easy to adopt for individual units in courses The book is written in clear accessible and jargon free language The book brings a new and innovative transatlantic perspective to 1930s French culture The books offers new perspectives on important figures that we thought we knew well The book mixes cultural history with the analysis of individual films and novels in a way that is engaging to read "!No Pasarán!" Stephen M. Hart,1988 The six essays collected in this volume are a selection from a number of papers which were given at a one day colloquium on Art Literature and the Spanish Civil War which was held in Westfield College on 18 July 1986 precisely fifty years to the day after Franco s military coup in the Canary Islands which was destined to have such a decisive effect on the course of Spanish history Though this date subsequently became a Francoist celebration the so called Dia del Alzamiento Day of the Uprising the papers collected here do not demonstrate a Francoist bias The overall approach is intertextual and interdisciplinary thereby stressing the international nature of the artistic response to the war For the benefit of the English reader all foreign quotations are followed by an English translation André Malraux David Bevan,1986-04-01 The two principal axes of inquiry are Malraux s ongoing quest for a dimension of transcendence within human life and at least as compelling his search for the most appropriate and effective means by which to express a changing awareness of just what that dimension might be Not surprisingly in a world apparently doomed to languish in the spectral shadow of Death there are certain constants a yearning for some fraternity to combat man's essential solitude a refusal to sink without effort into the vortex of the Absurd a conviction that life is to be lived fully and intensely The human condition is what it is The ways in which Malraux's characters and of course Malraux himself cope with this condition reveal a clear evolution especially from the 1933 novel La condition humaine onwards The reader follows Malraux from playful adolescence through the dichotomy of anguish and glorification in his middle years towards the primarily interrogative utterances of the mature man The often frivolous sometimes sardonic humour of youth gives way first to a painful recognition of the abyss then to the discovery of a very tentative equilibrium in the philosophy of metamorphosis espoused by an older Malraux Andr Malraux Towards the Expression of Transcendence reveals the principal steps by which Malraux achieved that equilibrium

Art and the Human Adventure Derek Allan, 2009 Derek Allan has published widely on aspects of Malraux's works and the theory of art and literature He holds a PhD in Philosophy and a Masters degree in French Language and Literature and is currently a Visiting Scholar in the School of Humanities at the Australian National University Book Jacket

Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia, Bettina L. Knapp, 2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts a summary of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world

Fallen Oaks: Conversation with DeGaulle André Malraux, 1972

German and European Poetics After the Holocaust Gert Hofmann, 2011 Crisis presents chances for change and creativity Adorno's famous dictum that writing poetry after Auschwitz would be barbaric has haunted discourse on poetics but has also given rise to poetic and theoretical acts of resistance The essays in this volume discuss postwar poetics in terms of new poetological directions and territory rather than merely destruction of traditions Embedded in the discourse triggered by Adorno the volume's foci include the work of Paul Celan Gottfried Benn and Ingeborg Bachmann Other German writers discussed are Ilse Aichinger Rose Auslander Charlotte Beradt Thomas Kling Heiner Müller and Nelly Sachs concrete poetry is also treated The final section offers comparative views of the poetics of European literary figures such as Jean Paul Sartre André Malraux and Danilo Kiš and a consideration of the aesthetics of Claude Lanzmann's film Shoah
