Answers To Questions About Interracial Marriage And Dating:

Racism without Racists Eduardo Bonilla-Silva, 2006-08-03 The first edition of this best selling book showed that alongside the subtle forms of discrimination typical of the post Civil Rights era new powerful ideology of color blind racism has emerged Bonilla Silva documented how beneath the rhetorical maze of contemporary racial discourse lies a full blown arsenal of arguments phrases and stories that whites use to account for and ultimately justify racial inequities In the new edition Bonilla Silva has added a chapter dealing with the future of racial stratification in America that goes beyond the white black dichotomy He argues that the U S is developing a more complex and apparently plural racial order that will mimic Latin American patterns of racial stratification Another new chapter addresses a variety of questions from readers of the first edition And he has updated the book throughout with new information data and references where appropriate The book ends with a new Postscript What is to be Done For Real As in the highly acclaimed first edition Bonilla Silva continues to challenge color blind thinking

Intermarriage Across Race and Ethnicity Among Immigrants Charlie V. Morgan, 2009 Morgan examines the relationship between assimilation and intermarriage In studying mixed relationships he finds that ethnicity in the form of language and religion is more important than race Males and females were more likely to find themselves in coethnic relationships as they imagined the role that extended family would play They talked about parental prejudices language religion and other cultural clashes as major factors There were many females however who did not follow this pattern because of perceptions of patriarchy They avoided coethnic relationships because they wanted a partner who would think of them as an equal
