The Alphorn through the Eyes of the Classical Composer Frances Jones, 2021-04-06 The Alphorn through the Eyes of the Classical Composer is the first and definitive book to be written about the alphorn in English. It has been written with English speaking readers in mind as it examines the extensive interest of primarily non Swiss composers, writers and artists in the alphorn as a symbol of the Alps, the influence and significance of the alphorn in culture, literature and the arts across the globe and the ways in which the instrument has been specifically utilised by the Swiss as the iconic representation of their country. This book also explores the use of the musical language of the alphorn call to ascertain why and how such references as those of Berlioz or Beethoven can convey so much meaning. Dr Jones seeks out what it is that a composer brings into the concert hall, the theatre, the opera house, the church or the drawing room by such a quotation to what heritage they are referring and upon what basis there are grounds for an assumption that such a reference will be understood by an audience. The book, which will be of interest to researchers in Swiss cultural studies and ethnomusicology, builds on Dr Jones's research and PhD thesis. The six chapters deal with a variety of topics including a basic introduction to the alphorn and an exploration of the promotion of the instrument as the symbol of Switzerland, as well as the reasons behind symbolic references to alphorn motifs by European and British composers in concert repertoire, jazz and film.

Benigno Zerafa (1726-1804) and the Neapolitan Galant Style Frederick Aquilina, 2016 This book is the first ever study of Malta's major eighteenth century composer Benigno Zerafa 1726-1804, a specialist in sacred music composition. This book is the first ever study of Malta's major eighteenth century composer Benigno Zerafa 1726-1804, a specialist in sacred music composition. Zerafa's large scale and small scale vocal and choral works, mostly written during his long service as musical director at the Cathedral of Mdina, have been winning increased recognition in recent years. In addition to describing and analysing this extensive corpus, the book gives an account of Zerafa's sometimes eventful career against the wider background of the rich musical and cultural life in Malta, especial attention being paid to its strong links with Italy and particularly Naples where Zerafa was a student for six years. It examines in detail the complex relationship of music to Catholic liturgy and investigates the distinctive characteristics of the musical style, intermediate between baroque and classical, in which Zerafa was trained and always composed one that today is commonly labelled galant. Well stocked with music examples, the book makes copious reference to Italian and Maltese composers from Zerafa's time and to modern analytical studies of Italian music from the middle decades of the eighteenth century, thereby offering a useful general commentary on the galant period. Its central aim, however, is to stimulate further interest in and revival of Zerafa's music. To this end, the book contains a complete work list with supplementary indexes. Scholars and students of eighteenth century music, in particular sacred music, the galant style and Italian music, will find it invaluable.
