A ^AModernist Cinema Scott W. Klein, Michael Valdez Moses, 2021-10-01 In A Modernist Cinema sixteen distinguished scholars in the field of the New Modernist Studies explore the interrelationships among cinema modernism across the arts and modernity in the period 1914 to 1941 Each of the fifteen chapters focuses on at least one influential film by a major director from Europe America or Asia including Pastrone Griffith Eisenstein Lang Hitchcock Murnau Dreyer Vertov Bu uel Ozu Ford Renior Chaplin Riefenstahl and Welles Contributors explore the formal and aesthetic qualities silent and early sound films in relation to their social cultural and political context and with particular attention to the challenges crises and promise of modern life in the first half of the 20th century

Early Cinema in Russia and its Cultural Reception Yuri Tsivian, 2013-12-13 This book examines the development of cinematic form and culture in Russia from its late nineteenth century beginnings as a fairground attraction to the early post Revolutionary years The author traces the changing perceptions of cinema and its social transition from a modernist invention to a national art form He explores reactions to the earliest films from actors novelists poets writers and journalists His richly detailed study of the physical elements of cinematic performance includes the architecture and illumination of the cinema foyer the speed of projection and film acoustics In contrast to standard film histories this book focuses on reflected images rather than discussing films and film makers it features the historical film goer and early writings on film The book presents a vivid and changing picture of cinema culture in Russia in the twilight of the tsarist era and the first decades of the twentieth century The study expands the whole context of reception studies and opens up questions about reception relevant to other national cinemas

Realist Cinema as World Cinema Lúcia Nagib, 2025-10-01 This book presents the bold and original proposal to replace the general appellation of world cinema with the more substantive concept of realist cinema Veering away from the usual focus on modes of reception and spectatorship it locates instead cinematic realism in the way films are made The volume is structured across three innovative categories of realist modes of production noncinema or a cinema that aspires to be life itself intermedial passages or films that incorporate other artforms as a channel to historical and political reality and total cinema or films moved by a totalising impulse be it towards the total artwork total history or universalising landscapes Though mostly devoted to recent productions each part starts with the analysis of foundational classics which have paved the way for future realist endeavours proving that realism is timeless and inherent in cinema from its origin
