Administration and Conflict Management in Japanese Coastal Fisheries Kenneth Ruddle,1987 Sea tenure in Japanese coastal fisheries is a complex subject that is little known in the West It involves time honoured customary procedures for management and conflict resolution which may have been incorporated into modern legislation The Introduction reviews selected aspects of the general behavioural context within which the administration of Japanese fisheries and the resolution of conflicts should be viewed Since the degree of continuity with traditional management practises is an outstanding characteristic Chapter 1 describes and provides examples of the historical antecedents of the present situation Present day formal administration is described in Chapter 2 Systems of coastal sea tenure reflect an intimate interplay of formal government regulations and informal customary elements The latter are commonly of greater day to day importance than the former In Chapters 3 and 4 this is examined through the problems of conflict management and resolution proceeding from the personal and small scale level to the impersonal prefectural and national levels

Conflict management. Dealing with conflicts in companies Barbara Groele, 2022-02-02 Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 0 University of applied sciences Neuss course Unternehmensführung im Mittelstand language English abstract Where people live and work together and want to achieve common goals be it in the professional or private environment conflicting interests and potential for conflict can arise at the same time Conflicts are part of everyday life and are inevitable when people with different interests meet They are side effects of every human coexistence In today's age of increasing globalization intensifying competition and internationalization profit oriented companies are also subject to a constant field of tension between pluralistic interests Negative emotions are often associated with conflicts and conflicting interests as they can lead to escalations hardening and or the postponement of one's own goals In companies conflicts and conflicting interests can have massive consequences for the company's success and thus also for cooperation such as for example lockout transfer and or absenteeism However if the conflict opponents have negotiated their different interests and reached an agreement conflicts can certainly also be used as a driving force Accordingly there are also opportunities in conflicts e.g. for the beneficial further development of the company the joint finding of an optimal solution and to increase entrepreneurial creativity Due to these facts it makes sense for companies to analyze conflicts to deal with the advantages and disadvantages and to initiate appropriate measures
