"Meeting" Anne Frank Tim Whittome,2021-03-07 Meeting Anne Frank An Anthology captures the stories of some twenty of us who have walked with Anne Frank and her sister Margot as kindred spirits over the course of the many decades that have elapsed since both girls died from typhus and Nazi cruelty in Bergen Belsen in 1945 None writing here actually met or knew Anne personally but we have talked to her and journeyed with her kindred spirit Anne Frank unites us at a time when so much of the world is riven by the familiar and divisive themes of partisan politics anti Semitism and prejudice You will though be meeting those who did know Anne s most adorable father Otto and they have kindly shared their vivid stories in this volume You will be seeing how we cherish not just the loving father daughter relationship that has come to mean so much for many of us but also the inspiration of Anne s patient mother Edith and her ladylike older sister Margot Several of Anne s surviving school friends also appear in the journeys undertaken by a number of my contributors In the years since she died in 1945 Anne Frank has become variously the sister mother wife daughter girlfriend or best friend to each of us writing for this anthology and to many in the wider world We honor the happy and tragic story of Anne s brief life and recognize the existence of at least two Annes in both her sense of fun and mischief and in her growing self awareness while in hiding Anne was only a child while she lived freely at Merwedeplein 37 in Amsterdam The Netherlands and barely a teenager when she died in a Nazi concentration camp for the simple crime of being Jewish Anne wanted to go on living after her death in February or March 1945 and I hope we have honored her lasting wish in this work Anne Frank Melissa

Müller,2013-06-20 With much new material on the betrayal of the Frank family and their attempts to leave for the US this updated edition is now the definitive biography of Anne Frank Definitive Choice Sensitive serious and scrupulous Sunday Telegraph Tracing Anne Frank s life from an early childhood in an assimilated family to her adolescence in German occupied Amsterdam Melissa M ller s biography originally published in 1998 follows her life right up until her desperate end in Bergen Belsen This updated edition includes the five missing pages from Anne Frank s diary a number of new photographs and brings to light many fascinating facts surrounding the Franks As well as an epilogue from Miep Gies who hid them for two years it features new theories surrounding their betrayal revelations about the pressure put on their helpers by the Nazi party and the startling discovery that the family applied for visas to the US that were never granted This authoritative account of Anne Frank s short but extraordinary life has been meticulously revised over seven years "Meeting" Anne

Frank Tim Whittome,2026-03-11 Now in full color our expanded and updated version of Meeting Anne Frank An Anthology continues our exploration of the personal influence of Anne Frank and her sister Margot None writing here actually knew Anne Frank personally but we believe we have met her in the eighty years since she died She unites us here at a time when so much of the world continues to be riven by the familiar but divisive themes of extremist politics anti Semitism and prejudice To meet Anne requires one to focus both on who she was as a talented lively funny and warmhearted daughter and also on who she represents as an involuntary spokesperson for all the lost dreams and promise of the 15 million children who died during the Holocaust or Shoah We will though be meeting four writers who knew Anne's most adorable father Otto and they have shared their recollections in this volume Joop van Wijk Voskuil who has kindly written the foreword for us is the son of Bep Voskuil who was famously responsible for helping those in hiding in the Secret Annex and for establishing a warm and close friendship with Anne Many of our reflections will pay tribute to the beautiful city of Amsterdam Anne Frank came to love the Dutch and the Netherlands and she looked forward to becoming a Dutch citizen after the war She died stateless instead Anne Frank has become variously the sister mother wife daughter girlfriend or best friend to each of us writing for this anthology and to millions across the world We pay tribute to the many Annes who have survived in our thoughts and ideals Sometimes we have wanted to talk to the Anne who was a gregarious opinionated impulsive and fun loving teenager while at other times we have wanted to listen to the Anne who was a talented and observant writer or to the Anne who was serious self critical and idealistic and who grew in maturity and wisdom while in hiding She was a child while she lived freely in the comparative safety of life in and around Merwedeplein Amsterdam and only a young teenager when she died with Margot in a Nazi concentration camp for the simple crime of being Jewish Anne Frank wanted to go on living after her death in February or March 1945 and I hope Meeting Anne shows how her wishes and voice have been heard in unique inspiring and instructive ways We may be walking where others have gone before us and where others will surely continue to do after but I hope along the way we will have shown that you can always see something different if you want to
