Discourse in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Classrooms Christiane Dalton-Puffer, 2007 The label CLIL stands for classrooms where a foreign language English is used as a medium of instruction in content subjects This book provides a first in depth analysis of the kind of communicative abilities which are embodied in such CLIL classrooms It examines teacher and student talk at secondary school level from different discourse analytic angles taking into account the interpersonal pragmatics of classroom discourse and how school subjects are talked into being during lessons The analysis shows how CLIL classroom interaction is strongly shaped by its institutional context which in turn conditions the ways in which students experience use and learn the target language The research presented here suggests that CLIL programmes require more explicit language learning goals in order to fully exploit their potential for furthering the learners appropriation of a foreign language as a medium of learning

The Roles of Language in CLIL Ana Llinares, Tom Morton, Rachel Whittaker, 2012-03-15 This book provides a theoretically based approach to the integration of language and content in primary and secondary contexts Drawing on their wide experience as

CLIL educators and researchers the authors explore data collected in real CLIL classrooms from two interrelated perspectives the CLIL classroom as an interactional context for developing language and content and the genres and registers through which the meanings of the different academic subjects are enacted From the analysis of this corpus of data the authors provide a rich description of how CLIL students language works and may be expected to develop Also available separately as a hardback Applied Linguistics Perspectives on CLIL Ana Llinares, Tom Morton, 2017-03-16 This book represents the first collection of studies on Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL which brings together a range of perspectives through which CLIL has been investigated within Applied Linguistics The book aims to show how the four perspectives of Second Language Acquisition SLA Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL Discourse Analysis and Sociolinguistics highlight different important aspects of CLIL as a context for second language development Each of the four sections in the book opens with an overview of one of the perspectives written by a leading scholar in the field and is then followed by three empirical studies which focus on specific aspects of CLIL seen from this perspective Topics covered include motivation the use of tasks pragmatic development speech functions in spoken interaction the use of evaluative language in expressing content knowledge in writing multimodal interaction assessment for learning L1 use in the classroom English medium instruction in universities and CLIL teachers professional identities The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics Martha Bigelow, Johanna Enns-Kananen, 2014-08-13 The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics provides a comprehensive survey of the core and current language related issues in educational contexts Bringing together the expertise and voices of well established as well as emerging scholars from around the world the handbook offers over thirty authoritative and critical explorations of methodologies and contexts of educational linguistics issues of instruction and assessment and teacher education as well as coverage of key topics such as advocacy critical pedagogy and ethics and politics of research in educational linguistics Each chapter relates to key issues raised in the respective topic providing additional historical background critical discussion reviews of pertinent research methods and an assessment of what the future might hold This volume embraces multiple dynamic perspectives and a range of voices in order to move forward in new and productive directions making The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics an essential volume for any student and researcher interested in the issues surrounding language and education particularly in multilingual and multicultural settings Bilingual and Multilingual Education in the 21st Century Christian Abello-Contesse, Paul M. Chandler, María Dolores López-Jiménez, Rubén Chacón-Beltrán, 2013-10-30 Bilingual education is one of the fastest growing disciplines within applied linguistics This book includes the work of 20 specialists working in various educational contexts across Europe Latin America and North America to create a volume which is both comprehensive in scope and multidimensional in its coverage of current bilingual initiatives The central themes of this volume which draws on past experiences of bilingual education include issues in language use in classrooms at elementary secondary and tertiary levels participant perspectives on bilingual education experiences and the language needs of bi and multilingual students in monolingual schools This collection will be of interest to teachers and administrators in bi and multilingual education programs as well as scholars working in the field of language education

Assessment and Learning in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Classrooms Mark deBoer, Dmitri Leontjev, 2020-11-17 This volume builds a conceptual basis for assessment promoting learning in Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL classrooms and proposes practical assessment approaches and activities that CLIL teachers can apply in the classroom CLIL as an educational context is unique as language and content learning happen simultaneously The efficacy of such instruction has been studied extensively but assessment in CLIL classrooms has drawn much less attention The present volume aims to fill this gap Arranged based on different ways that content and language are integrated in CLIL the chapters in this book together build a solid theoretical basis for assessment promoting learning in CLIL classrooms The authors discuss how assessment eliciting this integration yields insights into learners abilities but more importantly how these insights are used to promote learning The contributors to the volume together build the understanding of classroom based assessment as cyclic of teaching learning and assessment as inter related and of content and language in CLIL classrooms as a dialectical unity This volume will spark interest in and discussion of classroom based assessment in CLIL among CLIL educators and researchers enable reflection of classroom assessment practices and foster collaboration between CLIL teachers and researchers The assessment approaches and activities discussed in the volume in turn will help educators understand the scope of applications of assessment and inspire them to adapt these to their own classrooms

Content and Language Integrated Learning Yolanda Ruiz de Zarobe, 2017-10-02 This book explores some of the recent research undertaken on Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL It offers an overview of several European contexts describing experiences that could be extrapolated to many other communities worldwide Contributions focus on issues related to language policy moving from high level policymaking to grassroots decisions but all of them encompassing the major changes that can be recognized in education which also evidence the shifts in society and economic life that have taken place in Europe in the last decades These changes in language policy issues are coupled with changes in CLIL practice in the classroom These national initiatives are displayed across a wide range of educational perspectives portraying the diversity that is a distinctive feature of CLIL in the European educational mosaic By providing new insights into pedagogic methodological and language policy issues in CLIL and by covering some areas which have been insufficiently addressed in the literature such as the implementation of CLIL in less successful contexts or learner teacher collaboration in the classroom this book will be of great value to researchers stakeholders and professionals interested in CLIL and language education This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism

Teaching and Learning English through Bilingual Education Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo, 2012-01-24 These days numerous studies document and advocate the potential effectiveness of the CLIL approach which is viewed as a real revolution in second language pedagogy European bilingual education models are currently exemplified by CLIL Content and Language Integrated Learning a new generic and or umbrella term for bilingual education which has been rapidly spreading throughout Europe since the mid nineties Over the last decade there has been an explosion of interest in CLIL pedagogy in Europe and beyond However CLIL pedagogy also involves complex challenges concerning its implementation and the professional development of teachers This publication provides readers with a collection of original papers covering essential aspects of CLIL pedagogy This collection of papers serves as a good indication that valuable research is being conducted throughout Europe and that CLIL research is establishing itself as an important area of applied linguistics This book is mainly addressed to those in service teachers who teach in bilingual classrooms anywhere in the world under any circumstances and who wish to know more about CLIL pedagogy It can also be used as a helpful handbook for EFL student teachers The book is also for teacher trainers running both pre service and in service courses

Peer Interactions in New Content and Language Integrated Settings Nathan J. Devos, 2015-11-04 Trade schools universities and programs for international students have begun to experiment with Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL as a viable pedagogy for instruction as the pedagogy of CLIL increasingly gains recognition as a practical form of language and content education in Europe and beyond and its application in instructional settings becomes more diverse Corresponding with CLIL s growth this book focuses on foreign language use during peer interactions in a new CLIL setting It particularly concentrates on how to conduct research when the focus is on learner interactions The theoretical background research methods and research instruments are explained in a brief and understandable manner This book is intended for those interested in CLIL and peer interactions and includes a framework and ideas for investigating new CLIL contexts in a practical manner allowing undergraduate and graduate students to conduct their own research in these settings

Spatialisation of Education Tomasz Stepień, Annette Deschner, Mojca Kompara, Adriana Merta-Staszczak, 2013 In a knowledge based society education and technologies appear as the decisive driving forces of the development The considerations in this work extrapolate a multidisciplinary approach to the present conditions of education focusing on concerns such as the significance of technological development and the moral agency of technologies in the field of education

Discourse and language learning across L2 instructional settings, 2012-01-01 Studies on discourse and language learning originated in the field of general education and they focused on first language learning environments However since 1980s research on discourse and language learning broadened the scope of investigation to respond to second and foreign language environments Recently the emergence of new language learning contexts such as computer mediated communication multilingual settings or content and language integrated contexts requires further research that focuses on discourse and language learning From this perspective the present volume aims to broaden the scope of investigation in foreign language contexts by exploring discourse patterns in the classroom and examining the impact of factors such as gender explicitness of feedback or L1 use on language learning through discourse With that aim in mind this volume will bring together research that investigates discourse in various instructional settings namely those of primary secondary and university L2 learning environments content and language integrated contexts and other new language learning settings The number and variety of languages involved both as the first language e g English Finnish Basque Spanish Japanese French Italian Catalan as well as the target foreign language e g English French Italian Japanese Spanish makes the volume specially attractive Additionally the different approaches adopted by the researchers participating in this volume such as information processing sociocultural theory or conversation analysis widen the realm of investigation on discourse and language learning Finally the strength of the volume also lies in the range of educational settings primary secondary and tertiary education and the worldwide representation of contributors across seven different countries namely those of Spain France Austria Finland Germany Canada Australia and the United States The uniqueness of the volume is due to its eclectic and comprehensive nature in tackling instructional discourse Worldwide outstanding researchers like Julianne House Carme Mu oz Ute Smit Tarja Nikula or Roy Lyster to quote but a few adopt different perspectives in this joint contribution that will certainly broaden the scope of research on language learners discourse

Content and Foreign Language Integrated Learning Yolanda Ruiz de Zarobe, Juan Manuel Sierra, Francisco Gallardo del Puerto, 2011 This series promotes specialist language studies both in the fields of linguistic theory and applied linguistics by publishing volumes that focus on specific aspects of language use and provide valuable insights into language and communication research A cross disciplinary approach is favoured and most European languages are accepted
