

Capture Planning is the process of identifying opportunities, assessing the attractiveness, and planning and implementing winning strategies intended toward capturing a specific business opportunity. Commonly associated capture-planning means include: bid- or contract-capture plans.

Use the Overview and Action, Proposed Goals.

Lead sales and marketing relevant areas that will be portions of the total marketing efforts where they should guide to help drive better proposals are submitted.

The goal of capture planning is to identify the customer to guide your organization and your activities to the potential opportunities, so to be at their point to do business with your organization prior to proposals being submitted.

The primary capture planning objectives is the plan of organizations that will properly represent large U.S. Government or Federal opportunities.

Commonly associated organizations providing large, complex opportunities have identifying distinct elements or value planning objectives. Both value planning involves organizations with the following characteristics:

- High value
- Highly competitive, multiple people submitting the purchase proposal
- Long sales cycle, multiple phases

Some commercial organizations are the focus capture plan and business plan collaboration. However, many business plans are not appropriate specific and may thereby affect the organization's internal objectives setting process.

Use the Overview and Action, Proposed Goals.

Capture Planning

1. Implement a capture planning discipline to capture new business more efficiently.
2. Enhance capture planning effectiveness by defining activities and capture plans.
3. Select a compatible, mutually beneficial and complementary or add-on/off technology, service, effort, and capital capture plan to your organization.
4. Keep the process dynamic, flexible, innovative, and tested.
5. Maintain a balance between planning and execution.
6. Compare the Independent Customer Behavior Model and the Sales Comparison Chart used when time is short.
7. Gain and increase senior management approval and support.
8. Connect the right people to the capture team.
9. Design specific, measurable objectives, activities, and completion dates for different department managers by name.
10. Establish regular reviews and assess to determine whether an activity is the opportunity for the next phase or end the pursuit.
11. Schedule other team reviews to improve the capture—whether a contract plan, strategy, proposal, or underlying process.
12. Use the capture plan to compare the proposed planning process.
