Child Development, 9th Ed Laura E. Berk,2013

Making Sense of Emotion Frank John Ninivaggi,2017-08-31 Children not shown tools to develop emotional intelligence fail emotionally and socially Basic empathy skills are absent In adult life employment and occupational advancement are less likely Making Sense of Emotion grasps the Yale integrative emotional intelligence ability model Adding key missing elements this book unlocks its potential to trigger emotion performance utilization in real life and real time The epidemic of overusing medications substance use disorders addiction drug overdoses even global doping in sports reflects emotional malaise Emotional illiteracy is one underlying cause and demands innovative emotional intelligence Written by a psychiatrist this volume supplies literacy tools a vivid action language showing how emotions unfold as personal dramas Emotions are our first language the mother tongue infants and children are lived by Emotional awareness is refined emotional intelligence This book clearly defines emotions feelings affects moods and the social emotional competencies needed to understand and build emotional awareness Skills take shape resulting in unfolding self attunement In real time emotional intelligence is effective emotional performance The missing link between the two is the application of emotion regulation in real life knowledge in the head displayed in skilled everyday behavior Innovative ideas in this book explain how to apply this emotional hygiene fitness program to benefit children and adults

Sexualized Media Messages and Our Children Jennifer W. Shewmaker,2015-02-24 This provocative book takes a look at children s consumption of sexualized media messages while providing parents teachers and professionals with strategies for abating their influence In this eye opening book experienced child psychologist Jennifer W Shewmaker contends that the manner in which a child is raised influences how they respond to media messages particularly those shaded by sexual overtones This text takes a hard look at the impact of advertisements products and entertainment on a child s psyche and offers strategies for helping kids become critical active media consumers Drawing from research in a wide variety of disciplines this book explores the interpersonal factors within children s lives that impact how they learn to process sexualized media messages The book argues that an increase in marketing to children along with media based fabrications of beauty masculinity and femininity impact the confidence and character of young children who are often greatly affected by what they see and hear The author shares invaluable tips for promoting strengths in children and adolescents of both genders and presents the protective influence of communities to help children dismiss distorted media images
