Lawrence Patrick Jackson, 2007 Author intellectual and social critic Ralph Ellison 1914-94 was a pivotal figure in American literature and history and arguably the father of African American modernism Universally acclaimed for his first novel Invisible Man a masterpiece of modern fiction Ellison was recognized with a stunning succession of honors including the 1953 National Book Award Despite his literary accomplishments and political activism however Ellison has received surprisingly sparse treatment from biographers Lawrence Jackson's biography of Ellison the first when it was published in 2002 focuses on the author's early life Powerfully enhanced by rare photographs this work draws from archives literary correspondence and interviews with Ellison's relatives friends and associates Tracing the writer's path from poverty in dust bowl Oklahoma to his rise among the literary elite Jackson explores Ellison's important relationships with other stars particularly Langston Hughes and Richard Wright and examines his previously undocumented involvement in the Socialist Left of the 1930s and 1940s the black radical rights movement of the same period and the League of American Writers The result is a fascinating portrait of a fraternal cadre of important black writers and critics and the singularly complex and intriguing man at its center Mythic Black Fiction Jane Campbell, 1989 Campbell examines Black literature as it seeks to reverse and supplant the various dehumanizing myths promulgated by White American culture Analyzing fourteen literary works written over more than a century Campbell shows that this fiction permits Black authors to act as revisionist historians offering a transcendent view of the future through an exploration of the past In searching for rhetorical devices according to Campbell Black writers often draw on elements of myth that by definition articulate a culture's most profound perceptions and can be used in fiction to awaken readers' deepest urges In a substantial work of literary history Jane Campbell undertakes to reassess 14 Afro American historical novels which encapsulate the realities of various periods slavery post Reconstruction and the decades leading up to the eighties This book is worth reading by any student of Afro American literary history Cheryl Clarke The Black Scholar It is an important study which will enable us to better understand the full range of Afro American literature Thomas F Gossett Georgia Historical Quarterly Through the Russian Prism Joseph Frank, 1990 Essays probe the culture that spawned the great novels of Dostoevsky and explore the author's influence on world literature Ralph Ellison Harold Bloom, 2010 Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man is one of the great American novels of the twentieth century and his essays and other fictional work have also been highly influential This invaluable new edition of the
