Philip Adolphus Benson, Nelson Luther North, 1922. Understanding African Real Estate Markets. Aly Karam, François Viruly, Catherine Kariuki, Victor Akujuru, 2022-04-28. This book brings together a broad range of research that interrogates how real estate market analysis, finance, planning and investment for residential and commercial developments across the African continent are undertaken. In the past two decades, African real estate markets have rapidly matured, creating the conditions for new investment opportunities, which has increased the demand for a deeper understanding of the commercial and residential markets across the continent. The chapters consider issues that pertain to formal real estate markets and the critical relationship between formal and informal property markets on the continent. With contributing authors from South Africa, Ghana, Nigeria, Uganda, Kenya and Tanzania, the book considers the achievements of African real estate markets while also highlighting the complex central themes such as underdeveloped land tenure arrangements, the availability of finance in both the commercial and residential sectors, rapidly growing urban areas and inadequate professional skills. This book is essential reading for students in real estate, land management, planning, finance, development and economics programs who need to understand the nuances of markets in the African context. Investors and policy makers will learn a lot reading this book too. The National Real Estate Journal, 1930. Business Books:
