India Song:

The Indian Song of Songs Sir Edwin Arnold, 1875 Indian Song Book Jean Allard Jeancon, 1924 The Folk-songs of Southern India Charles E. Gover, 1872 The Theater of Teaching and the Lessons of Theater Domnica Radulescu, Maria Stadter Fox, 2005-01-01

In a first of its kind collection The Theater of Teaching and the Lessons of Theater offers a riveting array of perspectives approaches and dialogues exploring the intersections between theater as text theater as performance and theater as pedagogy The essays in this book advance the idea that in their interactive qualities both teaching and theater have profoundly political and social dimensions Scholars and teachers from a variety of backgrounds present in this volume an intentionally improvisational and fluid examination meant to offer a model of how to discuss and engage in the practice of theater and teaching ultimately interweaving the two The Theater of Teaching will be equally useful to teachers students and practitioners of theater

Marguerite Duras Leslie Hill, 2002-09-11 Marguerite Duras is France's best known and most controversial contemporary woman writer Duras influence extends from her early novels of the 1950s to her radically innovative experimental autobiographical text of the 1980s The Lover Leslie Hill's book throws new light on Duras relationship to feminism psychoanalysis sexuality literature film politics and the media Feted by Kristeva and Laca who claimed her as almost his other self Duras is revealed to be a profoundly transgressive thinker and artist It will be a must for all concerned with contemporary writing writing by women recent European cinema film and literature

India's Love Lyrics Laurence Hope, 1906 Indian Games and Dances with Native Songs Alice Cunningham Fletcher, 1915 Sacred Songs of India: Musicological and religious analysis, text and translation Emmie te Nijenhuis, Sanjukta Gupta, 1987 Report on Theological Education in India John Murdoch, 1900 In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule, Julie Beaulieu, 2009

This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration

of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five

Revisioning Duras James S. Williams, 2000-12-01

The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognised Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been an increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras's work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras's work in the widest sense of the term
