Intemperie Jesús Carrasco, 2013-01-17 Un debut literario con alma de clásico La riqueza de Miguel Delibes y la fuerza de Cormac McCarthy fundidas en una voz propia Un niño escapado de casa escucha agazapado en el fondo de su escondrijo los gritos de los hombres que lo buscan Cuando la partida pasa lo que queda ante él es una llanura infinita y rida que deber atravesar si quiere alejarse definitivamente de aquello que le ha hecho huir Una noche sus pasos se cruzan con los de un viejo cabrero y a partir de ese momento ya nada ser igual para ninguno de los dos Intemperie narra la huida de un niño a través de un país castigado por la sequía y gobernado por la violencia Un mundo cerrado sin nombres ni fechas en el que la moral ha escapado por el mismo sumidero por el que se ha ido el agua En ese escenario el niño a través de todo malogrado tendrá la oportunidad de iniciarse en los dolorosos rudimentos del juicio o por el contrario de ejercer para siempre la violencia que ha padecido A través de arquetipos como el niño el cabrero o el alguacil Jesús Carrasco construye un relato duro salpicado de momentos de gran lirismo Una novela tallada palabra a palabra donde la presencia de una naturaleza inclemente hilvana toda la historia hasta confundirse con la trama y en la que la dignidad del ser humano brota entre las grietas secas de la tierra con una fuerza inusitada

Affect and Belonging in Contemporary Spanish Fiction and Film Jesse Barker, 2017-08-24

This book brings together recent Spanish fictions and films that point to individualism as the root problem driving diverse circumstances of social economic and psychological suffering in the present and recent past The works privilege sensation movement and emotion rather than identity as the core elements of existential experience However the works also problematize notions of intersubjectivity confronting ideals of affective immersion and cultural nomadism with the concrete contexts that shape particular lives and social formations This confrontation underlies a series of crossroads or productive engagements that guide the book's five main chapters locally rooted identity and global cultural circuits historical contexts and universal modes of being personal authenticity and consumer culture migration and cultural identity Spain's historical underdevelopment and impending future crises All of these issues make affective connection and attachment the greatest existential challenge facing individuals and collectives in the contemporary world both in Spain and elsewhere

Beyond Human Maryanne L. Leone, Shanna Lino, 2023-10-02

Chronicling sixteenth century Spain to the present day Beyond Human aims to decentre the human and acknowledge the material historicity of more than human nature The book explores key questions relating to ecological equity justice and responsibility within and beyond Spain in the Anthropocene Examining relations between Iberian cultural practices historical developments and ecological processes Maryanne L Leone Shanna Lino and the contributors to this volume reveal the structures that uphold and dismantle the non human human dichotomy and nature culture divide The book critiques works from the Golden Age to the twenty first century in a wide range of genres including comedia royal treatises agricultural reports paintings satirical essays horror fiction and film young adult and speculative literature poetry graphic novels and television series The authors contend that Spanish cultural studies must expose the material historicity that entangles today s ecological crises and ecosocial injustices with previous future and contemporary entities The book argues that this will require the simultaneous decentring of the human and of the Anthropocene as an ecocritical framework By standardizing ecosocial analysis and widening avenues for ecopedagogical approaches Beyond Human participates in the ecocentric transformation of Hispanic cultural studies
