International Tax Summaries, 1998 Exploring the Nexus Doctrine In International Tax Law Ajit Kumar Singh, 2021-05-14 In an age when cross border business transactions are increasingly effected without the transference of physical products revenue concerns of states have led to a multitude of tax disputes based on the concept of nexus This important and timely book is the most authoritative to date to discuss one of the major tax topics of our time the question of how taxing rights on income generated from cross border activities in the digital age should be allocated among jurisdictions Demonstrating in prodigious depth that it is the economic nexus of the tax entity or activity with the state and not the physical nexus which meets the jurisdictional requirement the author a leading authority on this area who is a Senior Commissioner of Income Tax and a Member of the Dispute Resolution Panel of the Government of India addresses such dimensions of the subject as the following whether a strict territorial nexus as a normative principle is ingrained in source rule jurisprudence detailed scrutiny of such classical doctrines as benefit theory neutrality theory and international equity comparative critique of the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD and United Nation UN model tax treaties whether international law and customary principles mandate a strict territorial link with the source state for the assumption of tax jurisdiction whether the economic nexus based tax jurisdiction and absence of a physical presence breach the constitutional doctrine of extraterritoriality or due process and whether retrospective tax legislation breaches the principle of constitutional fairness The book offers a politically informed analysis of the nexus principle and balances the dynamics of physical presence and economic nexus standards based on an in depth survey of the historical evolution of judicial pronouncements and international practices in this regard Dr Singh s book exposes an urgently needed missing link in the international source rule literature and takes a giant step towards solving the thorny question of appropriate tax apportionment It sheds brilliant light on the policies states may adopt when signing new tax treaties so that unintended results may be foreseen and avoided Tax practitioners taxation authorities and academic researchers in the field of international tax law and policy will greatly appreciate the book s forthright enhancement of the ability to defend challenges based on the nexus doctrine The Journal of International Taxation, 2001 Essays on International Taxation Dhruv Sanghavi, 2020-12-21 Fiscally transparent entities and tax treaty eligibility Shefali Goradia Triangular cases the neglected problem in tax treaty law Michael Lang Can tax treaty entitlement provisions for hybrid entities be refined Dhruv Sanghavi Non discrimination provisions in tax treaties Ajay Vohra Two to tango a dance of substance and form Bijal Ajinkya Deconstructing Principal Purpose Test under Article 7 of MLI Mukesh Butani Preventing treaty abuse in the context of multilateral instrument Dinesh Kanabar and Saurabh Shah Taxation of digital economy the journey India and across the world Daksha Baxi Digitalisation of the economy Our perspective on the OECD s Unified Approach Vikram Chand Reflections on the 2019 OECD proposal on Pillar One Guglielmo Maisto Implementation of BEPS and Amendments to Section 9

Mittal,1989 Article by article commentary on OECD Model Treaty and comparison with other models including texts of comprehensive and limited Indian agreements The Taxation of Fees for Technical Services on the Basis of Article 12A UN Model Convention David Orzechowski-Zölzer,2024-05-21 Although rules on the allocation of taxing rights for fees for technical services have been provided for in bilateral tax treaties by African Asian and South American countries for decades it was only in the 2017 update that the UN Model Tax Treaty included Article 12A on the matter thus suggesting its inclusion in the tax treaty network of its Member States Consequently from a cross border perspective the interpretation of Article 12A is of great importance for both taxpayers and tax authorities This book presents the first comprehensive analysis of the scope of technical services in comparison to ordinary non technical services and the differentiation between Article 12A and other allocation rules of the UN Model The book's analysis focuses on the interpretation of the concept of technical services by examining the historical evolution of Article 12 of the OECD and UN Models and the systematic context in which it is embedded Aspects of this analysis examined include the following the base erosion principle as justification for establishing source taxing rights without the physical presence of the service provider in the state in which fees for technical services arise whether the term technical is sufficiently defined in the Commentaries to the UN Model or whether it shall be ascribed a different meaning to increase legal certainty for tax authorities and taxpayers relevance of the OECD Model and its Commentaries as the basis for the UN Model and its Commentaries rules of precedence concerning the application of Article 12A in relation to the other allocation rules of the UN Model the connection between royalties and fees for technical services application of Article 12A UN Model to challenges arising from the digitalized economy and the allocation of taxing rights for fees for technical services rendered in a third state Tax treaties of selected

African countries are examined as these countries were the earliest adopters of the concept of fees for technical services into their tax treaty network The book also provides an overview of literature and jurisprudence on country practices in Brazil India and other countries as well as relevant documents of international organizations This book provides practitioners government officials and academics with a deep understanding of the interpretation and application of Article 12A UN Model It will prove of great value in preparing for tax treaty negotiations and also in informing and advising enterprises that intend to conduct business in developing countries through the provision of specialized services Foreign Trade Review ,1985-04
