Key Learning

- «first name» always demonstrates respect for others and listens to alternative points of view. For example, when playing in the dramatic center or building with blocks, «first name» always considers the ideas of his/her peers and is welcoming when others want to join.
- «first name» demonstrates his/her ability to communicate his/her ideas to his/her educators and peers clearly using both verbal and non-verbal methods of communication. This is evident when «first name» contributes to our classroom discussions after read-alouds, shares ideas when solving math problems, and interacts with peers in a variety of learning centers.
- «first name» has a strong sense of self and shares the many things that make him/her unique. He/she enjoys sharing with educators all about his/her family, what he/she did on the weekend and what he/she enjoys doing during play.
- «first name» has developed friendships in our classroom this year. During outdoor and indoor play, «first name» now willingly joins groups of peers as they work together to complete activities such as solving puzzles or playing games.
- «first name» demonstrates a positive sense of self-identity. This is clear through his/her willingness and enthusiasm to participate in class discussions. «first name» recognizes his/her unique gifts and talents and is eager to share those with her peers.
- «first name» recognizes his/her creativity and talents as an artist and enjoys sharing the artwork he/she has created with educators and peers. For example, after creating work in the art center, he/she will share what he/she has created with educators and peers.
- «first name» is an independent learner in our classroom community. He/she chooses his/her learning centers based on his/her interests and needs each day, exploring a wide variety of learning topics.
- «first name» has both strengthened existing friendships and made new friendships in our classroom this year. «first name» has even expanded his/her friendship circle to include peers from other classes that he/she has met on the playground.
- This term, «first name» has shown confidence in large and small group discussions. «first name» has continued to become more willing and excited to share his/her many thoughts and ideas with educators and peers.
- «first name» is developing his/her communication skills when sharing his/her thoughts and ideas. This is evident when he/she verbally shares thoughts and ideas in greater detail.
- At the art center, «first name» displays his/her leadership skills as he/she assists others in the creation of their artwork and encourages them as they build and create.
- «first name» has a strong sense of self-interest and independently chooses to engage in learning tasks that he/she both enjoys and will be successful in completing. For example, «first name» often chooses math or literacy activities that allow him/her to engage in hands-on tasks as he/she learns various concepts.
- «first name» has become a confident learner in our classroom community. He/she recognizes his/her strengths and is excited to share what he/she has learned with educators and peers. For example, he/she expresses pride and joy when he/she writes and spells his/her name independently.
- «first name» has strong verbal communication skills when sharing his/her thoughts and ideas. This is evident when he/she verbally shares his/her thoughts in great detail.
- «first name» treats others with kindness. He/she is always the first to ask if someone is okay or to help someone in our classroom community.
