Section 2 – Revolution Brings Reform and Terror

1. What were the Rights of Man?
They established a political society, administered through a man.
2. Why did the National Assembly reject absolute monarchy?
They were tired of absolute monarchy, administrative and financial inefficiency led the French Revolutionaries to overthrow the monarchy.
3. Why did Louis XVI sign the Declaration?
In 1791, faced with a great financial crisis, the king accepted the necessity of the Estates General as the nation's laws and gave, with grudging reluctance, a promise to meet and give laws to the nation's representatives.
4. What government did the Legislative Assembly create?
The new government consisted of representatives who met in the National Assembly. The new government had the power to make laws and set taxes, including the national income tax.
5. What steps did the government take to improve relations with other governments?
The government made treaties, secured all the basic standards of the American. The people of France wanted the king to be king and to be a monarch and the king to be a king, separating monarchy from the monarchy's principles.
6. How did the Legislative Assembly use rights from their general elections? What steps did the people group take?
The Legislative Assembly was made up of three groups: the First Estate (the clergy or church), the Second Estate (the nobles), and the Third Estate (the commoners). Each group had the same amount of voting power.
7. What were the principal demands?
The revolutionary leaders had demands for all the basic standards of the American. The revolutionary leaders had the authority to set the government, control the economy, and to regulate the national government.
8. Why were other European nations concerned about the events taking place in France?
